NEWTONIAN

Psychology has become important to our civilization, for it examines the reasons people act, think, and feel as they do. Before one can understand others he must understand himself. Since self-searching can be so rewarding, we have devoted the 1963-64 Newtonian to taking a good look at our own school. What makes it the way it is?

Newton High is a unique place. We didn't need Time magazine's unqualified praise to tell us this. We're proud of its excellence but we can also smile at its more humorous aspects.

The results of our amateur analysis are occasionally disconcerting, but we hope they are also amusing. Our approach, admittedly an experiment, is the discovery of "The Psychology of Newton High School."

Richard W. Mechem
Principal

Certainly one of the most important and striking aspects of Newton High School is the diversity of its student body. The harmony and the clash between our various groups are at times pleasing, at times irritating, at times constructive, at times destructive; but this is the stuff of which life is made and part of our strength in developing individuals for the future lies in these realities.

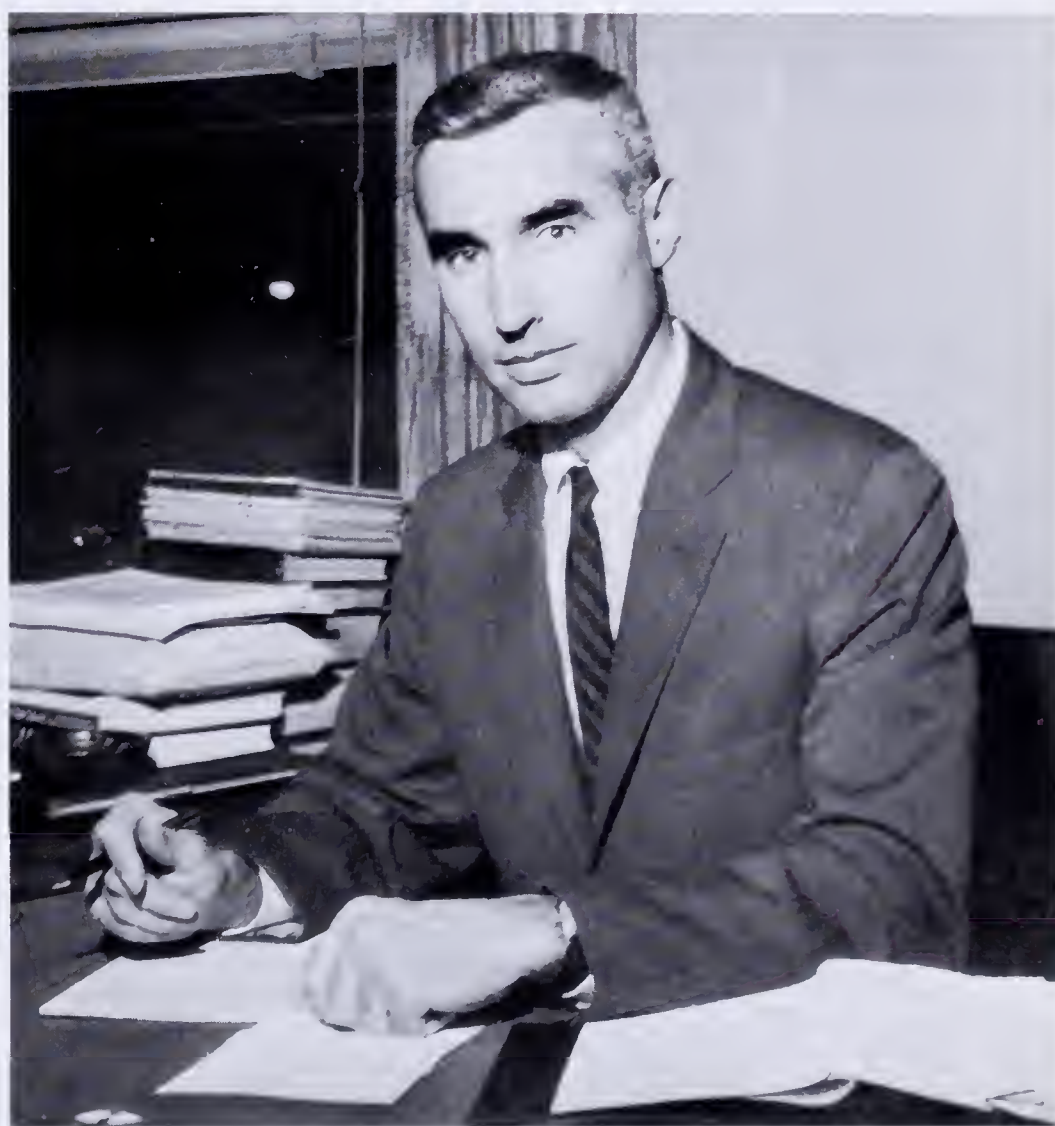

In choosing the psychological aspect of Newton High School as the theme of its yearbook, our senior class has put its finger upon a truly vital facet of our institution. The fact that the final solutions are not available in this area should not discourage us from looking into it, since understanding and wisdom are relative and both are increased by the very process of investigation.

It is our hope that the Class of 1964 will have profited from both the academic and psychological training provided in its three years at Newton High School. Good Luck and Best Wishes for the future.

DEDICATION

The five teachers honored on this page are, in a sense, a varied group. Miss Virginia F. Altieri teaches typing and shorthand in the Business Department, and is well-known as adviser of the Newtonite Advertising Staff. As a counselor in the Guidance Department, Miss Helen M. Finnerty has become an integral part of Bacon House. Mr. Malcolm P. Gallagher is Assistant Head of the Social Studies Department, and has coached football, baseball, and track. Mr. Henry Lasker teaches Music Theory and Appreciation, and has been musical director of many school productions. And Mr. Reginald Smith, who has coached or managed nearly every school sport, is Head Teacher of the Boys' Physical Education Department.

They have each taught at Newton High School for twenty years.

To each of them, with gratitude and respect for their service to a generation of students, the 1963-64 Newtonian is dedicated.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE FACULTY

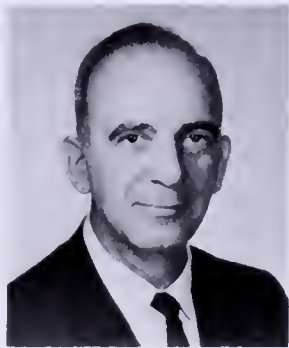

This year's painful efforts to integrate and improve the Boston schools have made us especially aware of the awesome responsibilities of a school committee, and especially appreciative of the nonpartisan liberality and concrete action of the Newton School Committee. While our facilities and faculty grow famous, the school Committee smiles behind the scenes.

FACULTY

This year the Newtonian introduces individual pictures of faculty members. We are proud and grateful that we have come to know our teachers as sensitive, humorous individuals, when in such a huge and automated school as ours we could have accepted the words of alien oracles. Our teachers as a group are as complex as we are; their colorful personalities and their understanding of student psychology have made the way smoother for the basic business of transmitting knowledge.

SCHOOL

STUDENT COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: M. Ham, J. McCann, J. Berman, G. Lockwood, Secretary; R. Matthews, President; H. Barr, Vice President; A. Moore, Treasurer; R. Kay, C. Muther, M. Levine. SECOND ROW: E. Feldman, H. Currens, R. Horowitz, T. Weiskel, F. Rubenstein, R. Yukes, J. Sherman, J. Sandler, M. Yesley. MISSING: F. McCarthy, L. Benson, W. Finer, R. Evans.

The Student Council is responsible for co-ordinating all school-wide activities and representing the students to the administration. Although the four permanent commissions (Civics, Finance, Elections, and Activities) handle much of the Council's routine work, the Council as a whole undertakes new projects.

The Council began its year with the ratification of the revised Constitution. The new Constitution clearly defines the rights and the responsibilities of the Council and its members. This year the Council continued several of its traditional projects: the school exchanges; the Student Council speaker; and the alumni program, a program by which juniors and sophomores can speak directly to Newton High graduates about specific colleges. This year the Council established several new programs as well: (1) a merit system which awards privileges to students achieving a certain academic average and demonstrating good citizenship; (2) a tutoring system whereby students failing work are tutored by students proficient in the subject; and (3) a Student Council award or scholarship given to the senior boy or girl who best exemplifies leadership. This year's Council has worked hard on these innovations, and it hopes that in the coming years these changes will become tradition.

FINANCE COMMISSION

FIRST ROW: L. Taylor, A. Moore, N. Klein. SECOND ROW: J. Sandler, Chairman; H. Kantor, M. Glassman.

The Finance Commission is responsible for raising and spending the money in the Student Council treasury. Its income comes from the sale of book-covers, decals, and folders; the sale and distribution of the New York Times; and the annual Bermuda Day. The bulk of the treasury is used for the support of the Council's two foster children and for the Student Council Scholarship. This year the Commission began two new projects: (1) the organization of the sale of magazines and periodicals to the student body, and (2) the establishment of a co-op which would serve as a student store.

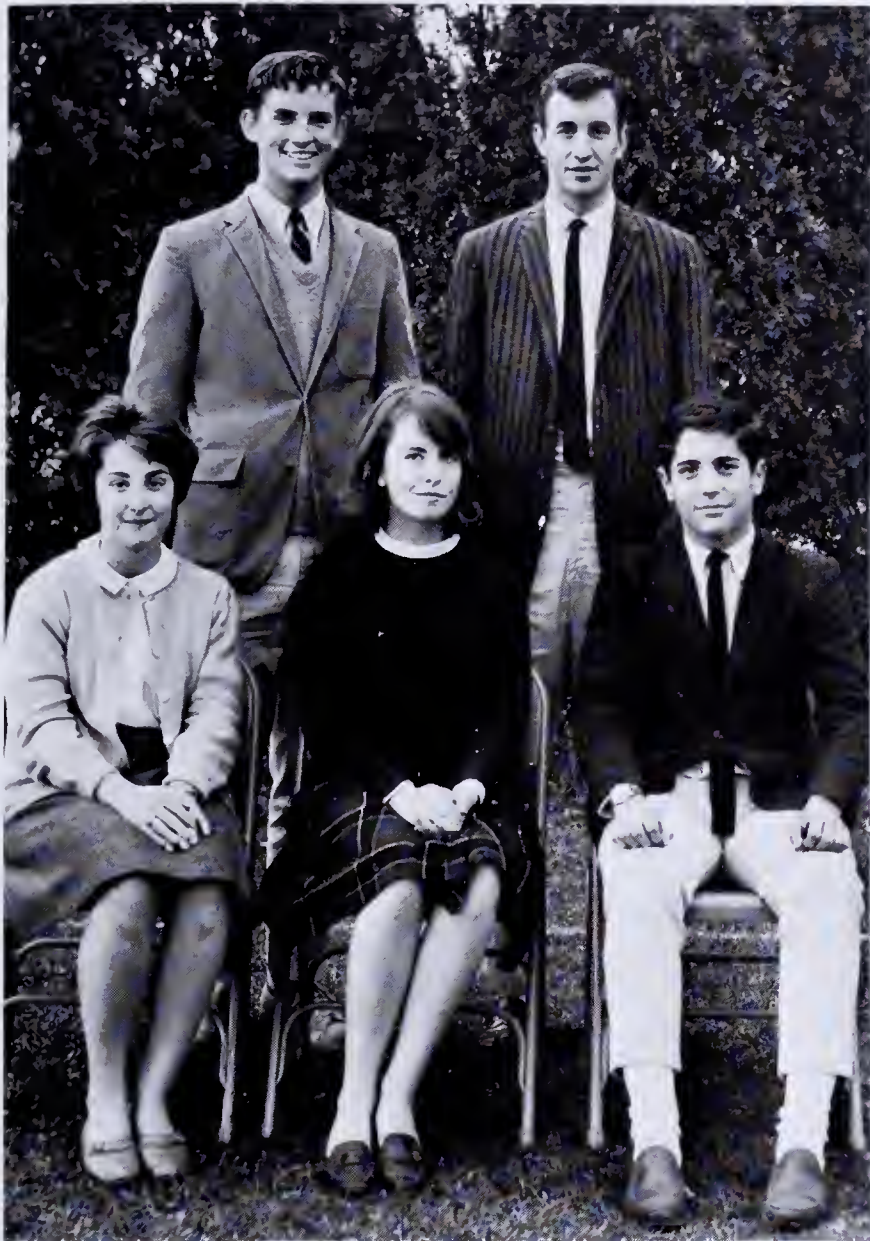

CENTRAL CIVICS

The Civics Commission takes care of school problems which directly pertain to the student body: the cafeteria, school grounds, tunnels, smoking regulations, and schooldress and decorum. By strengthening the Central Civics Commission and the House Civics Committees, the Commission has been able to more adequately take care of some of the school's problems. The Commission reorganized and improved the Orange Shield. The smoking rules were re-written and enforced. To help the general decorum of the school, the Commission took part in developing a dress code.

ACTIVITIES COMMISSION

FIRST ROW: F. Nesson, J. Mc Cann, Chairman; R. Singer.
SECOND ROW: W. O'Brien, R. Silberman.

The Elections Commission supervises all school-wide elections. Throughout the elections, held in the spring, the Commission stimulates the student's interest in school government by encouraging his direct participation in electing his officers and representatives.

The Commission continued the system of registration which requires each student to register in order to vote. This year, however, the system was made more efficient so that more students were encouraged to vote.

The Activities Commission co-ordinates all student activities either directly or indirectly through its several boards: Clubs Board, Assembly Board, Publication Board, and Boys' and Girls' Athletics Boards. This year the Commission supervised the Halloween Dance; and the Bermuda Day, when all students and teachers purchasing a ticket for 25 cents were allowed to wear bermuda shorts to school. In addition the Commission sponsored a school-wide assembly presenting a well known political speaker. Perhaps the Commission's biggest job was the thorough organization of all clubs. The Commission reviewed all club charters, and revoked those charters which were inadequate.

ELECTIONS COMMISSION

SOPHOMORE CLASS

FIRST ROW: B. Shriber, A. Vogel, E. Margolis, M. Rower, P. Schiavone, J. Russo, T. Green, H. Calvert, Secretary; R. Abrahams, N. Plotkin, C. Stein, B. Burman. SECOND ROW: B. Wilensky, N. Shulman, Treasurer; E. Friedman, C. Friedman, L. Sones, S. Gradone, J. Glickman, R. Caseletto, E. Garfinkle, S. Donath, A. McDaniel, F. Deats, S. Freeto, M. Chen, J. Menelly, L. Crossette, R.

Aronson, Mr. Read, Advisor. THIRD ROW: R. Berlin, M. Berke, M. Berman, M. DeMariano, R. Fitzpatrick, K. Young, S. Loumos, R. Mertens, M. Miles, J. Gentile, J. McSweeney, S. Selkowitz, President; R. Sigel, M. Krakow, R. Jefferson, L. Theise, J. Medalia, Vice President; R. Silver.

The Sophomore Class is always faced with the difficult task of organizing new students at Newton High. The problem is developing a united class spirit from diversity. This year's Class Committee was characterized by debate and discussion, which although not always produced unity usually generated spirit.

During the first part of the year the Class Committee collected dues from most of the class. Plans for the rest of the year included Sophomore Night at the Celtics and the sale of Sophomore pins. This year's Committee has done a good job in creating both unity and spirit for the class of 1966.

JUNIOR CLASS

FIRST ROW: C. Hanna, Miss Parker, Advisor; I. Posner, M. Levine, C. Muther, E. Feldman, J. Delgizzi, President; J. Maloof, Vice President; G. Hart, Treasurer, S. Couzens, Secretary; A. Cucchi, E. Freshman, J. Coleman, J. Lillis, A. Meterparel. SECOND ROW: E. Annis, L. Sabatini, J. Francione, R. Podell, S. Paris, L. Taymor, V. Rote, D. McEvoy, M. Ieraci, B. Fox, D. Blumenthal, J. Rich, D. Golub, L.

Shriber, A. Kasarjian, J. Hennelly, S. Gleason, G. Rosen, A. Sherman, D. Petkun. THIRD ROW: A. Suvalle, A. Amendola, S. Huling, S. Pinto, M. Fledstein, C. Karff, H. Beckman, S. Weiner, L. Ross, P. Fleisher, D. Glovsky, R. Bortek, M. Goldman, M. Gradone, A. Levin, A. Schichor, M. Fradkin, G. Levinson, D. Jacobson, M. Glickman.

Suddenly a girl at the helm! Perhaps for the first time in Newton history, chance has dealt to women a place of prominence. The elected president of the class — a boy — moved to another community and, as constitution dictates, the vice-president — a girl — moved into office.

The activities of the Junior Class included the inevitable class rings and the Junior Prom. The rings were selected and ordered during the early part of 1964 and the Juniors selected and ordered during the early part of 1964 and the Juniors anxiously awaited their arrival. Plans for the Junior Prom were successfully carried out at Sidney Hill Country Club.

The Class raised a respectable three hundred dollars on its November 22nd Junior Work Day. Fifty dollars of this money was set aside for the library in John F. Kennedy's name. The remaining money was contributed to the Congress On Racial Equality (C.O.R.E.). A similar work day was repeated in the spring. Throughout the year the Junior Class grew together as it worked together.

SENIOR CLASS

FIRST ROW: B. LeBrun, R. Martin, C. Deats, Secretary; M. Abrahams, Treasurer; J. Cohen, Vice President; K. O'Connell, Vice President; D. Bliss, President; J. Libby, V. Grady, L. Benson, N. Colantuono, P. Powers, M. Stiller. SECOND ROW: S. Lawson, G. Cioppa, S. Halewood, S. Fitzgerald, D. Conant, V. Grosse, P. Hern, J. Roser, J. Wolbarst, L. Meyers, D. Rodman, J. Chabot, C. Mason, G. Genovese, K. Manson, C. Tocman, F. Nesson. THIRD ROW: B. J. Hill, J. Downing, J. Scandale, G. Lockwood, J. Spitz, A. Mastroiani, J. Gilvar, N. Otis, B. Barnett, S. Rayberg, R. Kay, W. Nessel, V. Hambro, S. Woodruff, M. Tewksbury, S. Crosby, L. Watts. FOURTH ROW: C. Norris, D. Hayden, T. Weiskel, F. McCarthy, W. Bernard, C. Wood, T. Grieves, E. Trundle, T. Marquis, R. Brady, J. Hess, R. Mahoney.

This year's Senior Class, led by Dave Bliss, added a new spirit to the traditional class activities. The Senior Supper this year was centered around an Italian theme. Seniors enjoyed Italian pizza and submarine sandwiches which they served themselves; and the faculty as well as the students enjoyed the square dance which followed.

The first assembly this year was in the form of a press conference, where the class committee presented its ambitious plans for the year. Their major goal was to raise a fifteen hundred dollar scholarship for a selected senior. The class worked hard to raise this money by supporting school-wide football dances and holding a Senior Work Day.

The class succeeded in bucking tradition in plans for its Prom by not holding it jointly with Newton South High School. In short, rather than relying on tradition, the Senior Class used imagination in this year's planning.

Adams House has been combating the psychological problem of alienation. "We want to make the students feel that this is their council, and that these are their activities," says Adams House Council President Bob Bullock.

In order to come closer to the students, the Adams House Council was completely reorganized this year. The Civics Committee was abolished, and replaced by nine specialized committees involving many more students: Entertainment, Commons Room, Assembly, House Improvements, House Service, Community Service, Fund Raising, and Publicity. By keeping all of these communities working Adams house succeeded in involving the students in the activities of their house.

Bacon House is the center of student life at Newton High School. All students are acquainted with the gym, the cafeteria, the auditorium, and the Main Office, all of which are in Bacon House. Seniors especially come to know the College Records and Mr. Mitchell's offices. Looking over all of the activities of the school is the omniscient I.B.M.

For its own students, Bacon House presented an A.F.S. student speaker. In the autumn it sponsored a Thanksgiving charity drive for the Tippet Family Fund. And later in the year, Bacon House teachers and students exchanged roles to make The Student Day a success.

Many houses are searching for the key to success, but not Barry. Barry has the key and enjoys the success — the success that comes from its spirited atmosphere. Barry House girls and their fans showed plenty of spirit, if not success, in their game of "Powder Puff Football" against Palmer House. Students gathered for a successful hootenanny and the faculty presented a drama entitled, "Chalk Smoke." Barry House orange and black ties have become a school-wide sign of spirit and enthusiasm. While other houses seem to be lacking support especially from seniors, seniors in Barry House have been known to say, "I'd die for dear Ol' Barry."

One important merit of the house system can be seen in Beals House — independence. Under the administration of Mr. Richard Adams, Beals House policy reflects the mutual respect between its students and the faculty. The Beals House Commons Room remains the most used and most enjoyed in the school. The unwritten policy of concern for the individual is most evident in Mrs. Walsh who holds the unchallenged, honorary position of "house mother."

The Beals House Council continued for another year its popular "breakfast club." Students from all parts of the school were able to eat what they had missed at home. The exchange with the Pomfret School provided a welcome break from the everyday routine. The major project of the Council was the initiation of commons room lunches designed to allow a relaxed atmosphere for lunch.

In short, Beals House, home of Newton Plan, Reflections, Newtonite, and Film Festival, lacks only one essential item — an elevator.

Palmer Prodigies changed to Palmer Panthers this year; and with the new name, mascot, and house colors (red and black), came a new spirit, new activities, and new goals.

The Palmer House Council decided that it should have a new goal to work towards this year. The council sponsored a fund raising drive for the Peabody Home, a home in Newton for mentally retarded children. A two-week sale of Valentine Candy with the slogan, "Have a heart for the Peabody Home," and a hootenanny ended the successful drive.

The Palmer-Barry "Powder Puff Football" game in November helped to arouse Palmer House spirit. The highlight for many students, however, was the long-awaited return of the Coke machine to the Commons Room.

Riley House can be characterized by its sounds. Between periods excited students talk as they walk through the first floor of building two. As the period starts one can hear the steady "click, click" of the typewriters from the second floor. A murmur comes from the neighboring Language Lab. Downstairs the clink of a coin or the crackle of a new dollar bill comes from the Bursar's office. From the basement the rehearsing singing groups add to the Riley chorus of sounds. Riley is alive with the hum of life. No wonder it's called Smiley Riley.

NEWTON TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. Orrin Brawn
Director

Mr. Anthony Penta
Guidance

Newton Technical High School continues to be one of the best technical schools in the state. The object of the technical school is to give boys of high school age as thorough a training in the skills of a trade as pupils can acquire while they are still in school. The method of education is two-fold. Trade training seeks to prepare boys for profitable employment by teaching them related academic subjects as well as the necessary technical skills.

To offer specific trade training the school is divided into eight departments: Automobile, Electrical, Electronics, Drafting, Machine, Mill Carpentry, Printing, and Sheet Metal. The students spend the majority of their time acquainting themselves with the tools, the techniques, and the training of their trade. The remaining time is devoted to academic and related subjects consisting of English, social studies, mathematics, science, drafting, and shop talks. Individual instruction gives the best results in vocational training; consequently, classes in both shop and related subjects are smaller than in most schools. By this method each student receives individual help in his work. Instructors in the school are men who have had many years of practical experience in their respective trades. They have been trained, approved, and certified as teachers by the Vocational Division of the State Department of Education.

Any student who completes his work satisfactorily can expect a well-paid job in industry upon graduation. Last year the Tech High School placed all but one of its graduates into an industrial or trade vocation. To prepare the student for these jobs the school offers a co-operative program for the senior year. By this program responsible students work at regular paying jobs while they complete their Tech High training. This program, like other Tech High programs, seeks to develop the individual as an independent young man.

AUTOMOBILE

The Automobile Department of Tech High prepares boys to enter auto service or maintenance vocations. Students learn to recognize and repair malfunctions of the automobile from the suspension system to motor difficulties.

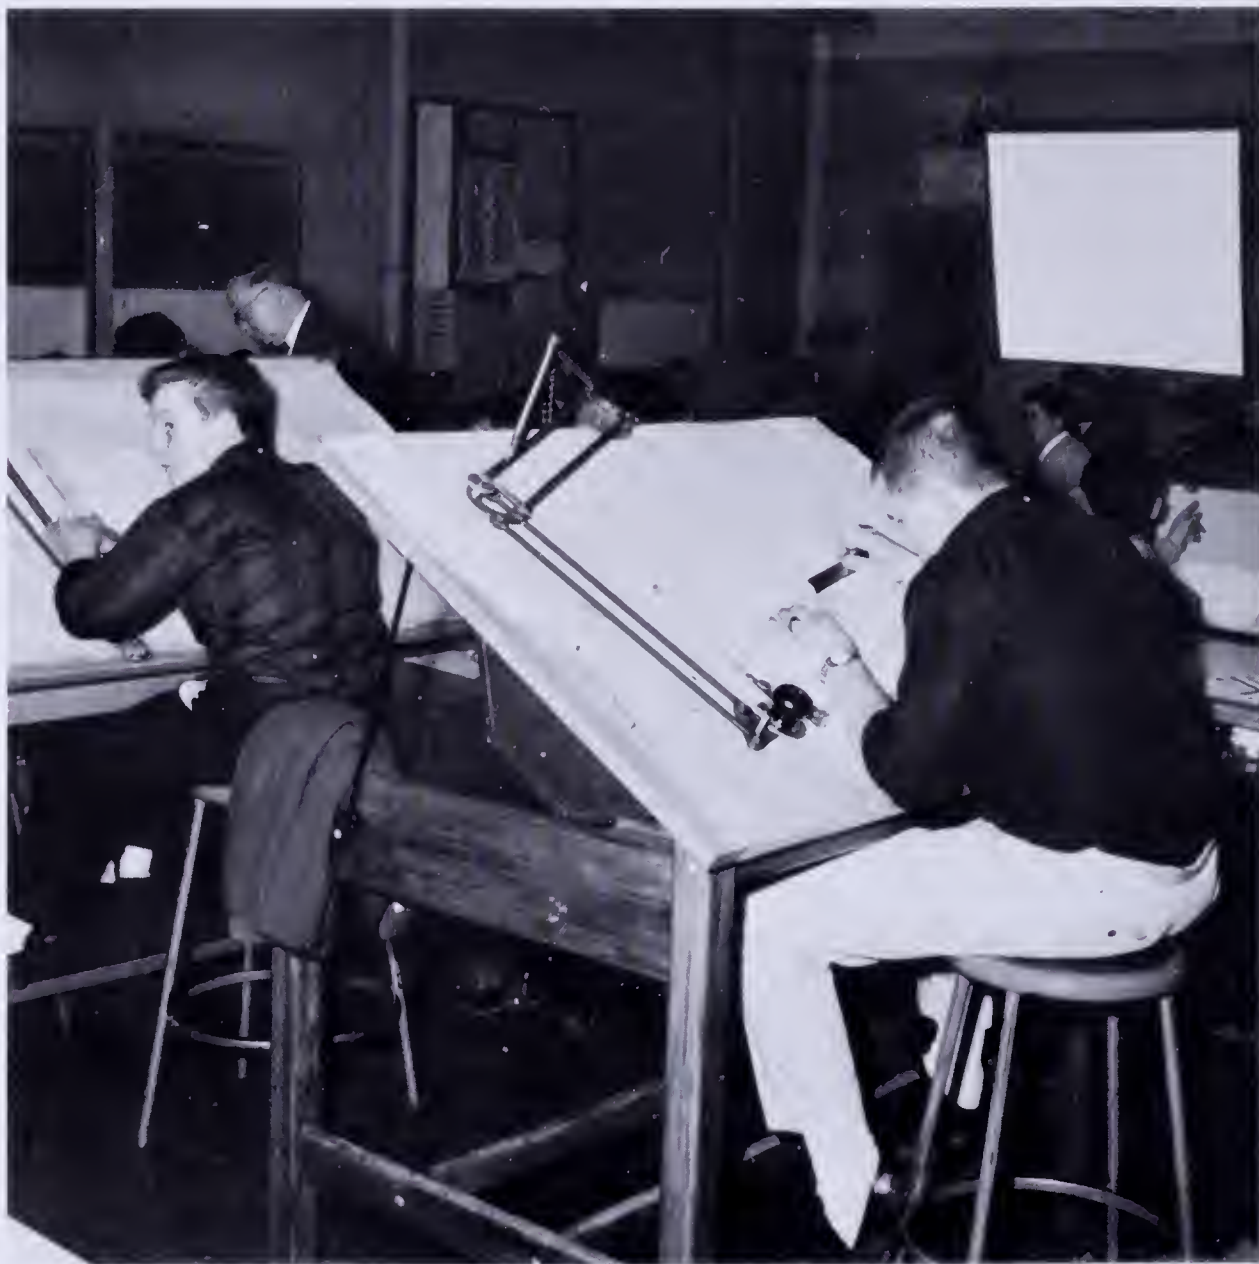

Work is accepted from the community as it is needed. Cars that are brought in by outsiders can be repaired by the students at only a fraction of the usual cost. Working directly with actual repair problems helps the students to become acquainted with problems they will meet as mechanics.

Each year two students from the auto shop compete in the Chrysler Corporation trouble shooting contest. The object is to identify and repair malfunctions in a contest car. Each year the competition is keen, but Newton has done well in the past and hopes to do well this year.

DRAFTING

It is the drafter's job to represent on paper a plan for the construction of any part. The machinist cannot work without understanding the drafter's techniques, and the drafter must be acquainted with those of the machinist. For this reason drafting students spend time in the machine shop, and machinists learn about drafting in their related work.

The drafting student begins by learning the correct procedure in lettering and tracing. He then goes on to "detailing" a particular part. In his drawing he includes the exact dimensions and specifications of the finished part. When the drawing is completed it can be used as the blue-print by the machinist in creating the finished product.

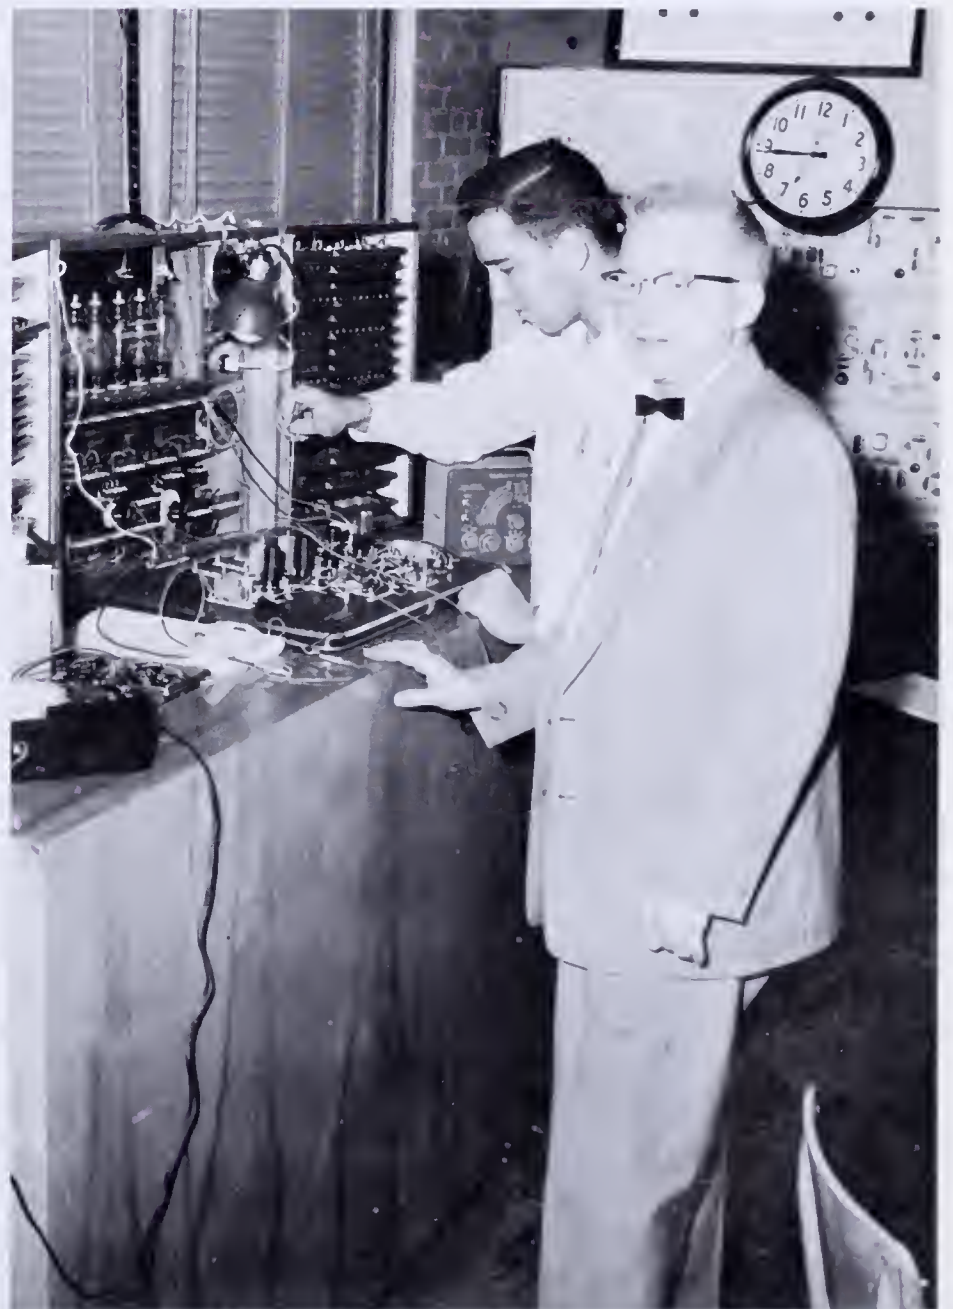

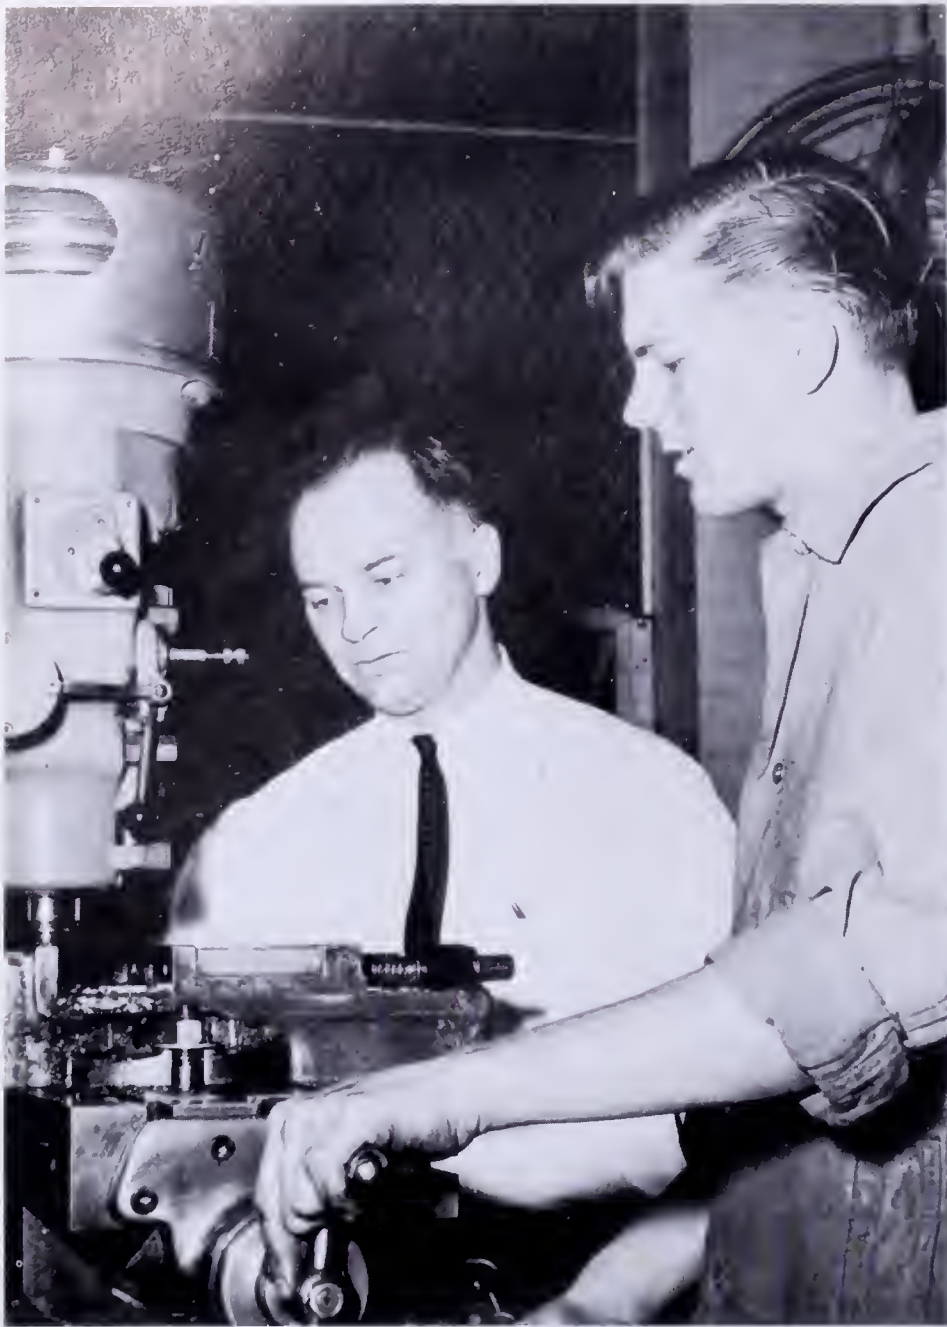

ELECTRICAL

The Electrical Department of Newton Tech High provides boys with a basic understanding of the theoretical and practical phases of electrical work. In the electrical course stress is laid upon maintenance and construction. The first year of the course is devoted to elementary shop work. In the junior and senior years, however, the students do maintenance and installation work throughout the city's school system. The electrical course prepares the student for an examination given by the Massachusetts State License Board which qualifies him as a licensed electrician.

ELECTRONICS

Electronics is probably one of the fastest growing industries in the modern world. Electronics, which used to be just radio and television repair, has now expanded into almost every area of industry and technology. The Electronics Department of Newton Tech High acquaints its students with basic theory and application of modern electronics. The students spend their time in shop repairing and constructing radios, amplifiers, and televisions. In the laboratory the students get the opportunity to experiment with basic electronics. With this background the students are able to meet the demands of the rapidly expanding field of electronics.

MACHINE

The machinist works closely with the draftsman to produce a sample of a new part or new tool. In order to do his job well the machinist must be acquainted with all the machines of the trade. In the machine course students are taught to work with industrial lathes and milling machines, using materials such as steel, copper, bronze, and synthetic white nylon.

This year the machine shop is working closely with Newton Junior College to develop a new piece of science apparatus. The project is called "The Dartmouth Air Track" and only a few such projects exist in the country.

MILL CARPENTRY

When asked by a visitor, "What do you do here?" Mr. Sullivan replied proudly, "There is nothing we cannot do with wood." What seemed to be a self-assured boast turned out to be true. Students in the Mill Carpentry Department are taught the techniques used with hand and power tools. During their course students learn such methods as shaping, molding, and tapering. Much of the work that the boys do is for outside projects. This year the Mill Carpentry shop was able to design and create a new piece of apparatus for the science department of Newton High.

PRINTING

"What do you do with people who don't believe anything until they see it in print?" Answer: "Print it." More and more things require a good printing job these days. The Printing Department teaches boys to produce excellent printing. The boys learn the basic techniques of setting type and operating printing presses. Students gain their experience by printing materials which the school department need to have published.

SHEET METAL

The sheet metal shop in the Newton Technical High School is thoroughly equipped with the tools and machinery necessary to provide the student with complete instruction in the operation, installation, and maintenance of industrial equipment.

The three or four year course provides training in modern methods of pattern development, metal spinning, and the fundamentals of welding.

In this age of steel graduates have little difficulty selecting the area best suited for their particular interests and ability.

In 1963, Newton High's football team split the season down the middle. The Tiger's season record was an admirable four wins, four losses, and one tie.

Newton fans were fortunate enough to see the highest quality high school football played in New England. The competition was tough but fortunately our Tigers proved to be tougher on many occasions.

In pre-season polls Newton's eleven were chosen as the team to beat. After such high praise the first three games of the season were disappointing to many, but then the team seemed to develop the spirit and team devotion which often distinguishes the winners from the losers. The Tigers went five straight games without a loss. The defense allowed the opponents only fourteen points. Newton's finest efforts resulted in an 8-0 victory over Medford and a 14-0 victory over Beverly.

By Thanksgiving day coach Jim Ronayne had developed a respected Class A power. (See Brookline write-up.)

THANKSGIVING DAY

Newton High's traditional Thanksgiving Day game at Brookline provided an upset for the second consecutive year — this time with Newton on the short end. Brookline's high-powered offense had built up a 36-8 lead before the Tigers began to move the ball closing the gap to 36-22 before the final gun.

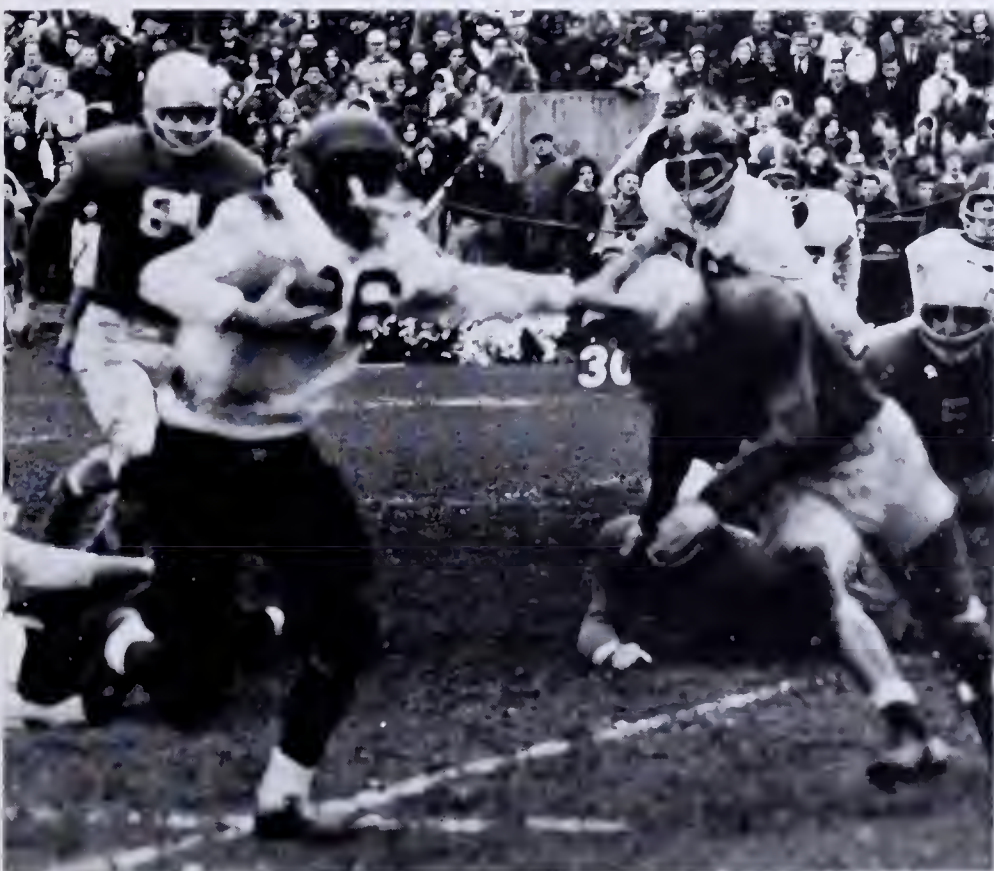

Fred Magarian played a sensational game that chilly November morning gaining over 120 yards rushing, but his performance was overshadowed by that of Kevin Fleming, Brookline's classy quarterback. Fleming, the Wealthy-Towners' captain, scored two touchdowns, and passed for two more. One of his TD runs was a 45-yard punt return.

Newton QB Ken O'Connell scored two of the three Orange-and-Black touchdowns and fullback Fred Magarian carried for the other. O'Connell's first TD came in the second quarter on a rollout play, and this very same play got the two-point conversion to tie the score 8-8.

Tiger fans had little to cheer about afterwards, however, as the Red-and-Blue posted 28 straight points on the scoreboard. Newton fumbles proved costly several times during the middle two quarters as Coach Jim Ronayne's visitors tried to mount an offensive. At the close of the third quarter, the Tigers had marched down to the Brookline 10 before losing a fumble.

Then in the fourth quarter, Newton's offense started moving the ball. It put together a 62-yard touchdown drive, capped by an O'Connell plunge on 3rd-and-goal. An onside kick gave Newton the ball again and two plays later Fred Magarian smashed 37 yards for an exciting TD. A second onside kick attempt was recovered by Brookline who ran out the clock.

If the Tiger offense had clicked a little earlier in the game, the decision might have been reversed. Nevertheless, credit must go to the entire team for the exciting fourth-quarter rally it staged.

Newton's powerful girls' field hockey team finished their 1964 season with a four and four record. Coach, Mrs. Jean Flink, developed a strong offensive team which outscored the opposition 2-1. On defense goalie Anne McDaniel had three shut-outs and allowed only seven goals in as many games. The '64 season was highlighted by two victories over Newton South and a decisive 5-0 victory over Brookline.

Coach Abner Bailey's 1963 Cross Country squad had an exceptional seven win, one loss season. On our home course the squad remained undefeated. We suffered our lone defeat to league champion Malden at Malden. The team's success was due mainly to good depth and consistently fine performances by Captain Melvin (Bernie) Finkel and John Tomb. Newton's

2.6 mile course proved challenging to all competitors; throughout the year it provided many thrills. During one meet Melvin Finkel was assaulted by a gang of neighborhood kids armed with sticks. Earlier in the season senior veteran Roger Silberman was attacked by a mad dog.

In the spirit of progress for which Newton High School has become well known, in 1963 it initiated its twelfth varsity sport. The rookie soccer squad had a record of one win, seven losses, and two ties. Coach Elliot employed every means available to drill thirty boys into a team. He even called early morning practices. But, of course no one can provide experience, and this was obviously the main ingredient the Tigers lacked. Despite this handicap the Newton defensive led by goalie Mike Gra-done did not allow more than three goals in any game. The offense started slowly but by the end of the season had shown great improvement and proved to be tough competition for the opponents. The offense was led by seniors Jan Volk and Dick Valle who scored three goals each. Next year with experience working for, not against him, Coach Elliot should have a successful season.

The 1964 Newton High School track team under the direction of head coach Lamoine Boyle and coach Malcolm Gallagher again enjoyed a winning season ending the season with a final record of five wins and two losses. Impressive wins were scored over Waltham, B. C. High, Malden, Brockton, and Brookline. The only defeats were at the hands of league champion Rindge Tech and runner-up Weymouth. Consistently outstanding performances by the following boys in their special events proved to be the reason why Newton enjoyed their fine season: Captain Jim Delehanty—hurdles, George Grabau and Jim Hoover—dash, Mickey Burlingame—shot put, Bob Aisner—high jump, Ron Arra and Ken O'Connell—300, Dick Steibel—600, John Tomb—2 mile, and Bernie Finkle—1000. Finkle, by the way, was the only member of the track squad to go through the entire season without suffering a single defeat in dual meet competition. There were two "humorous highlights" during the track season; the first occurred at the state meet when during the hurdle final star James Delehanty fell while leading, thus losing first place. The hurdles again proved to be a nemesis a few weeks later when standout high-jumper Bob Aisner fell and broke his arm while warming up for the hurdling event.

BASKETBALL

It was a disappointing season for the Newton High School Basketball Team this year. They totaled only five wins against thirteen losses. However, the team improved constantly throughout the season both offensively and defensively.

On offense the team raised its average from forty points a game, at the beginning of the season, to sixty or seventy points a game at the end of the year. Among the top scorers were Jim Roche, a double-figures scorer every game; Tom Grieves, deadly with a corner jump-shot; Sam Rosenberg, who got very hot towards the end of the season; Dan Martell, who scored thirty points versus Brookline; and Joe Gill, a real hurtler averaging ten points per game. On defense the Tigers got help from Schwartz, Martell, Keefe, Holicker, and Abrahams.

Prospects look good for next year with starters Danny Martell and Marty Swartz returning as co-captains, along with Keefe and Holicker. Despite the disappointing season, the Tigers never gave up; they kept hustling all the way.

What has five legs and a red antenna?

Cool it man!

Other than football, it seems that Hockey attracts more student interest than any other varsity sport. This interest was apparent even before the 1964 season began. Fans were apprehensive. They asked themselves, could Coach Kinlin rebuild a hockey power after losing his goalie and first line through graduation? He did. To this date the Tigers have a 9-2-2 record and are second in the Greater Boston Interscholastic Hockey League. For the third successive year they will compete in the State Tournament.

Defensively, the team was led by Captain Dick Valle. Next year Newtonians will miss his hide and seeking behind the nets, but goalie Kevin MacLatchy, Bob Toomey, and will still be around. Offensively, Dick Toomey was a major factor in the team's success. He consistently kept the puck about the goal. Dick was one of the state's high scorers. The team scored about 50 times, and although many goals were Toomey's, George Mechem and Jeff MacLaughlin were his constant companions and abettors.

Coach Malone and the boys from Newton Technical High School had a tough winter winning only three games and losing eight. The team competed in the Eastern Massachusetts Vocational League and finished in fifth place. This season's squad was captained by Al Bianchi.

FIRST ROW: S. Smith, D. Wilbar, J. Medalia, D. Cedrone, D. Cassidy, A. Crosby. SECOND ROW: Coach Mr. Jessup, M. Taplin, M. Tewksbury, F. Stizesky, R. Lampis, D. Donahue, J. Hale.

GYMNASTICS

Gymnastics is certainly the fastest growing sport at Newton this year. A league was organized in 1964, and Newton is sure to do very well.

This winter the schedule was expanded to include various additional teams as well as a state championship and a league meet. Coach George Jessup led his boys back a for a disappointing start to win more than half of the last nine meets.

Although often hampered by injuries the following boys provided exciting performances: Captain Stu Smith, Al Crosby, Ray Wilbar, Mike Taplin, and Don Cassidy.

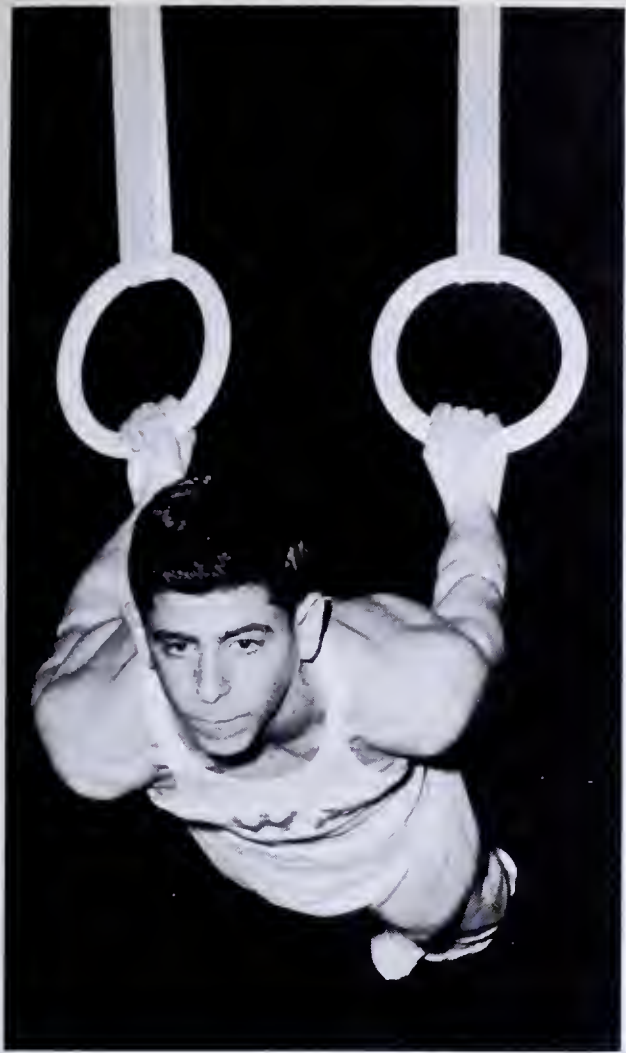

As of today the squad has a five win — seven loss record. However, all are very hopeful for a first place in the league meet and a good showing in the State Individual Championships.

The team lost some fairly close ones, too. It lost to Acton 872-859 and later lost to Concord by just three points, 830-827. Senior Tod Brown, captain of this year's squad, was the "big gun" through the first six games, including the 832-787 romp over Wayland.

Basic Drives: What's it like on the other side of the fence? F.T.A.'ers spent valuable homework time this year to find out. Then, when the assignments were due, they could appreciate the frustrations of both parties involved.

Manifestations: Their agenda included a discussion on practice teaching, a film on the "three R's of teaching," and a day spent at an elementary school.

Side Effects: Hopefully, a group of enlightened and enthusiastic teachers-to-be.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

FIRST ROW: J. Weinstein, F. Osborne, President; A. Macycave, S. Aronie, J. Michelson, C. Toman, B. Moger, A. Carp, Vice President; C. Sapiro, J. Omicangioli, Secretary; N. Otis, P. Shapiro. THIRD ROW: A. Cornaro, S. Paris, J. Taber, L. Bloom, J. Taber, J. Leone, D. Kaplan, G. Kotzen, J. Glazer, J. Solomon, D. Finkel, G. Ryan.

Basic Drives: The key to this club was service, to Newton High School and to the community.

Manifestations: The boys in this organization weren't "do-gooders," but they did do well. They collected food for needy families, and at Christmas volunteered their help at the Boston State Hospital. Remembering, though, that "charity begins at home," they collected P.T.A. dues and ushered the bewildered parents who visited the school.

ORANGE SHIELD

Basic Drive: This year the Orange Shield outdid itself in an effort to maintain Gracious Living in our cafeteria.

Manifestations: Orange Shield members put the tables in exciting new patterns, smiled and even occasionally whisked away eaters' trays for them — just like Manners the Butler!

Side Effects: The very grateful thanks of all of us.

FIRST ROW: B. Lane, P. Ernst, B. Rothstein, S. Books, S. Smith, H. Barr, J. Silverman, C. Wood, C. Derick, S. Sussman. SECOND ROW: Mr. Hurlbut, J. Matz, M. Veaner, M. Ham, N. Colon-tuono, C. Lynde, J. Hale, J. Hoover, M. Gradon, D. Zises.

Basic Drives: Service is more than kindness or sympathy; it is hard work. Willing Junior Red Cross members were out to serve.

Manifestations: At nearby hospitals the students visited wards, made stationery kits for shut-ins, and gave parties for veterans. They provided bikes and toys for the needy. And at Christmas, they even became "Subs for Santa".

Side Effects: The sense of self-fulfillment that invariably comes from helping others.

FIRST ROW: D. Kendall, A. Sweetser, R. Yukes, President; P. Jacobson, Vice-President; D. Hootstein, Treasurer; A. Carp, S. Wooten. SECOND ROW: J. Levine, E. Freshman, D. Mills, V. Levy, H. Kornig, S. Wein, M. Sweeney, M. Glenn, S. Sooho, T. Barnett.

HOMEROOM MANAGERS

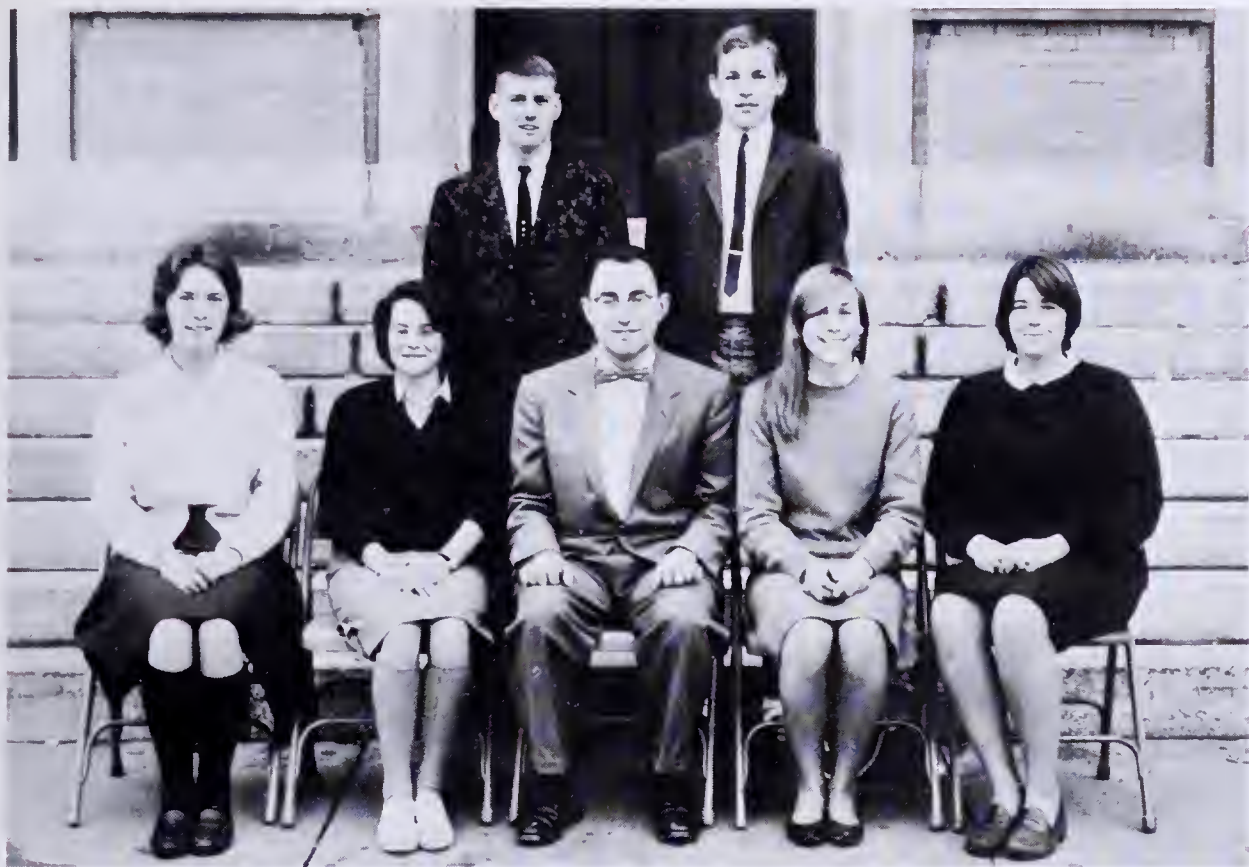

FIRST ROW: L. Watts, S. Calvert, J. Chabot, M. Lurensky, L. Wisefield, P. Powers, B. Maloof, I. Firger, C. Andelman, M. Lichter, A. Henderson, D. Hodgen, SECOND ROW: J. Alexander, L. Kaplan, C. Moriece, M. Levin, E. Lane, S. Parker, B. Harris, J. Blakeney, M. Martin, L. Murry, E. Boiteau, P. Needle, G. Wilson, A. Vogel, B. Pellows. THIRD ROW: K. Segall, J. McDonald, R. Silver, M. Taylor, F. Kaplan, J. Elson, B. Fuoco, D. Bright, H. Calvert, M. Sockol, B. Tarlow, A. Kent. FOURTH ROW: M. Cohn, C. Weiss, C. Webb, B. Gilbert, G. Garber, M. Finkel, B. Totaro, B. Goldman, A. Taylor, W. Hunter.

Basic Drives: The primary trait of a homeroom manager was his courage, both physical and mental. Without it, he would never have volunteered for his responsibilities. But armed with fortitude and the instructions, "A homeroom is not to be confused with a room at home," he set out to be Chief Protector and Harrasser of nearly thirty students.

Manifestations: The homeroom manager sold Newtonians, handled S.A.T. sales, distributed Newtonites, and in countless other ways represented his homeroom in the ever-demanding business world of NHS.

SKI CLUB

SKI CLUB OFFICERS

FIRST ROW: P. Ford, Treasurer; R. Kay, President; Mr. Rist, Advisor; C. Muther, Secretary; D. Conant, Treasurer. SECOND ROW: K. Krukons, Treasurer; D. Hayden, Vice President.

Basic Drives: Traveling en masse, Newton High School skiers saved time, money, and worry, and got to know fellow ski enthusiasts.

Manifestations: Day and overnight trips were organized to ski areas in Vermont (Okemo, Snow, and Hogback) and New Hampshire (King Ridge).

Side Effects: (To be read defiantly), Sticks and stones may break their bones, but sl^{ing} never hurt them.

OUTING CLUB

FIRST ROW: B. J. Hill, B. Kelley, B. LeBrun, P. Hern, Secretary; J. Roser, President; Mrs. Grossman, Advisor; P. McGrath, Vice-President; V. Grady, Treasurer; E. Silva, S. Lawson. SECOND ROW: P. Weiner, E. Duby, G. Howard, B. Ford, N. Plotkin, E. Margoliz, J. Burke, S. Blacquere, G. Kirkcaldy, P. Reilly, B. Hinteregger, G. Ryan, C. Kruger, N. Stewart, L. Benson. THIRD ROW: V. Sudhalter, B. Rich, F. Foster, N. Acheson, M. Brodrick, H. St. Clair, B. Mathaisel, J. Menelly, L. Wons, P. Funk, D. Litwack, N. Kenney, E. Seymour. FOURTH ROW: D. Nordbeck, M. Lovell, L. Gollub, V. Tom, J. Bell, J. Branzburg, J. Schneider, M. Laughlin, J. Pearson, F. Schultz, S. Willmarth.

Basic Drives: Girls with an internal craving to participate in more than one sport found plenty of activity in the Outing Club.

Manifestations: Outing Club members were seen sliding down from steaming steeds, slogging up mountains and down hockey fields, or simply basking in the sun.

Side Effects: Charley-horses and tanned faces.

SAILING CLUB

SAILING CLUB OFFICERS

F. Fisher, President; B. Canner, Vice-President; M. Yesley, Secretary; S. Freeto, Treasurer.

Basic Drives: Do you have the tired, all-over achey feeling? If so, you must have been in the Sailing Club this year. These modern day mariners got some wind in their sails and battled rain and sea for a pleasurable cruise.

Manifestations: When early fall was over, members sailed vicariously through movies and demonstrations. But when spring arrived, they sailed again in local waters.

Side Effects: may occur. Therefore, membership in this club is not recommended for those prone to seasickness.

RALLY COMMITTEE

Basic Drives and Manifestations: "Give me an N . . . !" It's not easy for a group of individuals to inspire a student body as large as Newton High's with school spirit. But the Rally Committee met the challenge; its colorful publicity posters, its spirited football rallies, and its cheering sections at the games added a good deal of enthusiasm to school events.

Side Effects: Laryngitis.

FIRST ROW: P. Bogen, Captain; D. Conant, P. Hern, C. Zolli, E. Russel, Tiger; J. Greely. SECOND ROW: B. Funk, M. Tewksbury, C. Deats, Co-captain; B. O'Brien.

CAMERA CLUB

Basic Drives and Manifestations: The Camera Club relieved that dread disease, "shutter-eye." As part of the therapy it offered discussions of photography at every regular session; pictures were evaluated with regard to technique and composition.

Side Effects: A "negative" outlook.

FIRST ROW: B. Levy, E. Siegel, J. Hacker, K. Schnider. SECOND ROW: T. Hyde, R. Doyle, P. Bloom.

MOTION PICTURE SQUAD

FIRST ROW: F. Lebel, F. Ronne, J. Gerson, A. Suvalle, J. Choate, W. Heskey. SECOND ROW: M. Riccio, E. Schnider, D. Katz, D. Freed, R. Jacobs, E. Feldman, S. Selkowitz, R. Parker, G. Drucker.

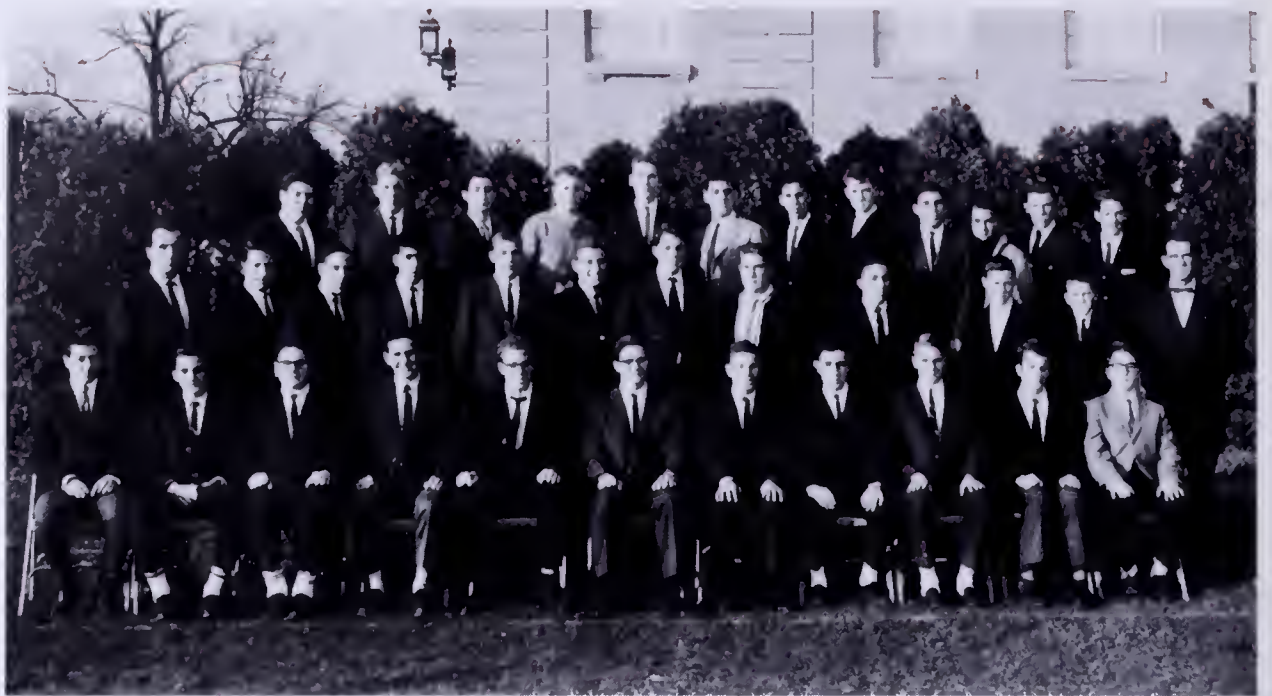

Basic Drives: Frustration was the common denominator of the squad members. They decided, however, that if they can't star in movies, they can "project" themselves in a slightly different way — showing movies at Newton High.

Manifestations: Each boy received expert training in the operation of motion pictures and audio-visual aides. Then he qualified to run projectors for classroom and school-wide use — and to start training new operators.

RIFLE CLUB

Basic Drives: The Rifle Club was organized as a release from nervous tension. Its members developed a particular dexterity with a rifle and participated in competitive shooting.

Manifestations: Although the entire membership was active in the National Rifle Association, the club's most proficient shots got a special ego-booster: selection for the Rifle Team. From November until April, this team took part in matches with schools from other communities.

FIRST ROW: B. Wilensky, D. Bright, E. Siegel, M. Razza, S. Yanco, J. Reed, Secretary; J. Hollis, Treasurer; M. Demeo, President; T. Brown, Vice-President; J. Kuffler, J. Gerson. SECOND ROW: Mr. Lent, Advisor; K. Sinofsky, B. Jones, D. Hayden, J. Elson, J. Ford H. Wolf, B. Alfredson, J. McDonald, D. Washburn, Mr. Bodman. THIRD ROW: I. Blank, J. Higgins, B. Cohen, A. Taylor, D. Alksnitis, D. Sherman, R. Parker, T. Murphy, C. Clardy, W. Dupry, T. Salimme, B. Alkon.

BRIDGE CLUB

Basic Drives: Despite vicious rumors that Bridge Club members were insecure individuals turning to card playing as an escape, the truth of the matter is that they were among the many people fascinated by this social game of skill.

Manifestations: Weekly meetings allowed members to study the fundamentals and fine points of bridge, and to enjoy playing the game itself. Often, meetings were devoted to discussing interesting hands and how they should have been played.

CHESS CLUB

FIRST ROW: H. Kennison, Secretary; S. Kaufman, Vice-President; C. Webb, President; S. Pearlman, R. Lees, Treasurer; D. Cohen. SECOND ROW: M. Krakow, S. Olasky, K. Sinofsky, S. Finn, R. Doyle, L. Stavis, S. Pollack, K. Schmite. THIRD ROW: S. Sacks, G. Levinson, J. Michelson, R. Murphy, M. Ohlson, S. Stavis, G. Goldberg, D. Jacobs.

Basic Drives: Any potential Bobby Fischers at Newton High? If there are, the Chess Club will be duly congratulated for encouraging them. And for the majority — those content to play this intriguing game for relaxation — the Club provided a meeting place and some healthy competition.

Manifestations: Although the Chess Club formed too late in the year to join a league, its members enjoyed frequent matches. Meeting in commons rooms or in the cafeteria, they helped one another to check their kings . . . and, occasionally, their tempers.

RADIO CLUB

Basic Drives: Radio schizophrenics (half human, half electronic) met to exchange ideas, experiences, and techniques, but also . . .

Manifestations: . . . wild sessions of Morse Code pounding and attempts to reach Premier Khrushchev and call him a "dot-dash-dash-dot-dash" helped to relieve constant outside pressures.

Side Effects: Latent Arnie Ginsburgs?

FIRST ROW: L. Sirota, M. Riccio, Vice-President; J. Benoit, Treasurer; A. Lapon, Secretary. SECOND ROW: F. Ronne, E. Feldman, H. Gorin, L. Mack, S. Miller.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

FIRST ROW: K. Waters, Newtonite Correspondant; T. Weiskel, A.F.S. to Syria; R. Rack, Exchange Student; M. E. McDaniel, Co-chairman, S. Deitz, Coordinator, Linda Harrer; Exchange Students: C. Masakwe, Y. Tanaka, G. Holzer. SECOND ROW: House representatives; M. Levine, G. Purple, S. Nickelson, M. Coogan, S. Couzens, P. Ford; C. Muther, Secretary; B. Canner, Treasurer. MISSING: L. Harrer, Co-chairman.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

AFS came marching in this year with a bigger number than ever before. Petite, piano-playing Gabi Holzer from Vienna was the American Field Service's sole foreign representative at Newton High until her larger fellow Austrian, Reinhard Rach, who is not from Vienna, arrived in November. On a two-week visit here in December, Anneka Ehrnst "fell in love with Newton," and Newton fell in love with blonde and Swedish Anneka; she arrived for good in January. Meanwhile Yasuoki Tanaka and his violin, both from Japan, and Kathy Masakwe, here from Kenya on a Unitarian church exchange program, had been spreading unofficial but genuine AFS-type goodwill since September.

NHS STUDENTS ABROAD

Newton High's two young Americans Abroad became familiar with both the people and the politics of their fomenting foster countries. In September, Tim Weiskel returned intact from six weeks in revolution-racked Syria. Tim's first slides of his Syrian father's factory show portraits of Nassar on display; in later slides, they are gone. Bob Joyce began school in Chile soon after his arrival last January, and graduated a year later, arriving in Newton just in time for four more months of school. But his long school year in Chile gave Bob the chance to become a real part of his town, and to gain an understanding of the complaints of its poor and of those that control them. Americans Abroad finalists Diane Blumenthal, Dick Betts, and Barry Canner meanwhile kept their fingers crossed for next year.

Hopes for foreign students and dream-wishes of the finalists were encouraged by the psychological and financial success of the activities sponsored by the Newton High AFS Student Committee this year. Club meetings under co-chairmen Mary-Eliza McDaniel and Linda Harrer were held regularly, each in a different commons room, and planned by that House Captain, and the AFS newsletter made occasional appearances. The Christmas candy cane sale was a sell-out, and, more important, so was the South High Auditorium when folksinger Jackie Washington sang for AFS in February. Soon after, student enthusiasm reached its peak at a rollicking AFS Assembly for juniors. The pledges came pouring in while the wild Jug Band played "When AFS Comes Marching In." The AFS week in the spring conclusively ended a year which proved that fund-raising can be fun.

ACTIVITIES

SCIENCE TEAM

Basic Drives: Mr. Hall's chargers were interested in becoming well-versed in the fields of biology, chemistry, and physics, and in deciding what camera angle would do their profiles justice in the televised match.

Manifestations: The team pitted four of its members against other high school teams of Greater Boston in a competition similar to that of television's "College Bowl", in which the emphasis is on quick recall.

FIRST ROW: H. Polishook, R. Angoff, S. Levine, Captain; S. Finn. SECOND ROW: D. Benjamin, D. Stone, F. Mansfield, B. Firger, D. Hayden, S. Gross, J. C. Hall, Advisor.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

Basic Drives: Student secretaries performed a service for the school and for themselves. While assisting with the work in their own house office they learned valuable secretarial procedures.

Manifestations: Taking messages, answering phones, filing slips, and assisting visitors were just a few of the tasks of these energetic helpers.

Side Effects: From their labor, a deeper understanding of the complex administrative world of NHS.

FIRST ROW: P. Bogen, S. Mehlsak, C. Nussman, M. Sherman, C. Andelman, W. Nessel, E. Gill, J. O'Brien, N. Acheson, M. Stiller. SECOND ROW: D. Renda, J. Spencer, G. Genovese, D. Rodman, H. Fox, A. Leighton, G. Ryan, P. Asaff, L. Cavanaugh, R. Ford, B. Tarlow, R. Sonnabend, D. DeGeorge, E. Savitsky. THIRD ROW: P. Blum, C. Bilezikian, E. Salamoff, J. Finsen, L. Sabatini, D. Daum, A. Bromilow, M. Levine, S. Gleason, J. Hennelly, B. Moger, J. Schneider, T. Maillet, S. Hall. FOURTH ROW: S. Freeto, S. Couzens, G. Simmons, B. Giroux, A. Lapon, D. Berman, D. Margolin, T. Cucchi, T. Geary, J. Maloof, A. Hill, J. Roser, A. Carp.

ALPHA GAMMA TAU

Basic Drives: Men have been playing with mathematical teasers for centuries. This school's mathematicians and this year were no exceptions; Alpha Gamma Tau explored topics of interest beyond the scope of classroom math.

Manifestations: By inviting noteworthy professional mathematicians for informal discussions, members increased their prowess. Meanwhile, with justified confidence, they sent five of their number each month to represent Newton High in the Interscholastic Math Competitions of Greater Boston.

Side Effects: Pi-throwing contests.

INDEPENDENT RESEARCH CLUB

Basic Drives: Independent Research Club? To many students the name study be conducted in a group? But the club does offer both the freedom to do an independent project and the benefits of group discussion and field trips.

Manifestations: Occasional scientists visiting Newton High School delivered lectures and demonstrations. The Research laboratories in Natick invited students to visit and to observe their activities. For its members, the perfect answer to self-expression and development in science is the Independent Research Club.

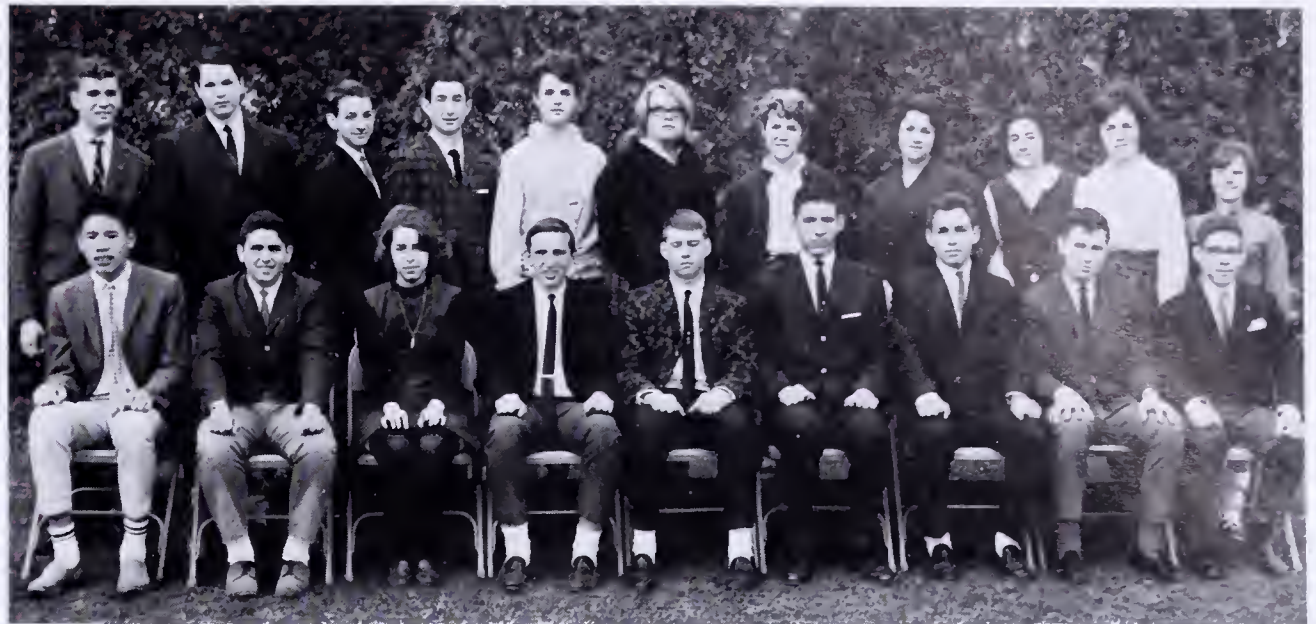

FIRST ROW: L. Taymor, R. D. Evans, R. Firger, R. Angoff, H. Udin, A. Sweetser. SECOND ROW: B. Feldman, L. Sirota, D. Kates, D. Mathaisel, J. Muther, M. Riccio, G. Demoulin.

BIOLOGY CLUB

Basic Drives: The motive of those who joined the Biology Club was simple: curiosity about the living world.

Manifestations: These young biologists devoted their monthly meetings to field trips and laboratory projects. Even the small plants and animals rampant in Building II this year were part of the students' laboratory research.

Side Effects: The discovery that appreciation of life increases with an understanding of its processes.

FIRST ROW: F. Tom, L. Leeder, M. Chandler, Secretary; L. Larkin, Treasurer; K. Krukoni, President; S. Gilman, Vice-President; W. Lebovich, B. Goldman, G. DeMoulin. SECOND ROW: B. Feldman, H. Sherman, B. Alkon, B. Cohen, G. Ross, M. Hill, K. McCloskey, J. Rich, L. Trachtenberg, I. Reardon, M. Kepnes.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

FIRST ROW: Mr. S. Rist, Advisor, C. Klein, M. Corman, J. Finkel, E. Berns, Mr. J. C. Hall, Advisor. SECOND ROW: H. Polishook, K. Krukoni, R. Matloff, P. Barron, D. Schofield, A. Amandola, T. Silberman, F. Mansfield, President; P. Johnson, M. Alpert, S. Levine, B. Rothstein, J. Romanov.

Basic Drives: "Is that water or sulfuric acid?" Chemistry Club members learned to find out without tasting it.

Manifestations: Whether heating test tubes, adjusting balances, or mixing chemicals, members showed constant curiosity about the scientific world and appreciation that they could make their own discoveries. On Science Night they willingly showed and explained their experiments to parents and visitors who did not have the same opportunity.

FRENCH CLUB

Basic Drives: D'atteindre sans larmes le perfectionnement du français des membres.

Manifestations: Loin de la tension des classes, les étudiants peuvent parler français et apprendre un peu des Français et de leur langue. Parfois il y avait un speaker comme Mlle. Gail Sneck de la Maison Française à Boston University ou M. John Harvey de notre propre école.

Side Effects: De quoi louer, de quoi supprimer.

FIRST ROW: S. Kaplan, R. Cohen, J. Libby, J. Klapper, B. Miller, P. Bastin, Vice-President; M. Brass, President; S. Sushan, M. Isenberg, C. Shapero, B. Pellows, E. Klapper, B. Hoffman; SECOND ROW: A. Vogel, B. Leeder, J. Marks, J. Sisson, J. Levine, B. Harmon, P. Green, W. Grahm, A. Meterparel, S. Pinto, B. Ford, E. Gorfinkle, F. Junod, R. Aisner, R. Aronson. THIRD ROW: S. Stern, L. Meyers, M. Shuster, M. Reisman, A. Brilliant, J. Kail, J. Hennelly, B. McCann, A. McKittrick, K. Porretti, K. Wrenn, M. Brown, N. Levine, J. Finsen. FOURTH ROW: M. Yacolis, J. Levin, J. Barry, J. Magidson, M. Chen, J. Branzburg, D. Jacobs, B. Moses, L. Leeder, R. Silver, R. Marx, A. Wilson, C. Mingace, C. Weinstein.

FIRST ROW: M. Gold, J. Rome, J. Spitz, P. Leahy, A. Mastroianni, L. Kaplan, N. Darack, M. Dever, C. Andelman, M. Lichter, Z. Silverman, R. Cohen. SECOND ROW: D. Litwack, B. Hinteregger, C. Borden, E. Segal, S. Rosliff, R. Sandler, J. Thomason, J. Porretti, M. Power, M. Lurensky, D. Hootstein, C. Brunswick, N. Schulman, J. Mahoney, F. Kaplan. THIRD ROW: M. Berman, L. Gordon, A. Parad, S. Jacobson, R. Diamond, B. Alexander, D. Ross, M. VonRichthofen, S. Dorris, M. Eu, A. Penta, B. Tarlow, P. Garfinkle, L. Galer, M. Harvey, S. Sussman.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

Basic Drives: Star-gazers have never been lacking, but those who stop to consider the scientific nature of the universe are rarer. Astronomy Club members were among these few.

Manifestations: Besides frequent group discussions, several ambitious projects were carried out; among them a tabulation of information on variable stars and some telescopic photography of planets and galaxies. Perhaps the most creative accomplishment was the building of a planetarium — a tiny but fascinating universe.

David Sherman

LATIN CLUB

FIRST ROW: V. Lockwood, M. Kolifok, M. Lipsett, D. Ross, Treasurer; L. Raffel, Vice-President; A. Rousseau, Secretary; L. Marcus, M. Daniels, C. Shapiro, T. Warshaw. SECOND ROW: S. Glass, S. Feinberg, A. Macycove, J. Fine, B. Leeder, A. Fisk, M. Bronstein, L. Savtiz, M. Corman, A. Sherman, L. Leeder, P. Shapiro. THIRD ROW: D. Blumenthal, A. Lupo, C. Green, L. Bass, S. Segell, M. Levine, N. Shulman, E. Segal, L. Shriber, J. Finsen, G. Ross, Program Chairman; P. McCormack, M. O'Brien. FOURTH ROW: R. Gopen, P. McBrairty, M. Waterman, H. Sherman, R. Brickman, M. Canivos, J. Leahy, S. Sussman, R. Kaplan, L. Garber, P. Capodilupo.

Basic Drives: No dead language was resurrected at Newton High School this year, even in the Latin Club. However, the club did promote a better understanding of classical Latin and its value today.

Manifestations: Included in this year's club activities were uno, a Saturnalia Festival with the presentation of a skit and Latin word games; duo, a joint meeting at Newton South High at which the two state delegates to the Junior Classical League Convention showed slides of the summer convention in Kansas; and tres, members showed slides of Italy and describing their European visits.

SPANISH CLUB

Basic Drives: El Club Espanol* le demostro a la escuela la belleza del idioma espanol y la importancia de nuestras relaciones con los paises de habla esponola.

Manifestations: Una celebracion del Dia Pan-Americano y una descripcion interesante de la vida de Chile por Roberto Joyce, un socio de A.F.S., eran algunas de las atracciones. Los socios estudiaban la musica y los bailes espanoles en las reuniones regulares.

* Now is the time for all good Spanish students to start adding the accents.

FIRST ROW: A. Moore, D. Finkel, R. Aisner, L. Ginsberg, S. Fitzgerald, N. LeVine. SECOND ROW: P. Holcomb, K. McCloskey, R. Bortock, Treasurer; M. Spector, Secretary; E. Feldman, President; J. Weinstein. THIRD ROW: J. Muther, J. Frank, J. Forte, D. Swartz, M. Mintz, P. Walcott, M. Bellar, E. Tepper, N. Smith, S. Spector, P. Spector, Mrs. Saunders, Advisor.

RUSSIAN CLUB

FIRST ROW: S. Sachs, L. Klein, Treasurer; L. Claff, President; S. Monasson, M. Shapiro, M. Coogan, J. Merrin. SECOND ROW: Mr. Snyder, Advisor; J. Berman, B. Shore, E. Ulman, E. Gleason, G. Simmons, J. Cominos, L. Chassen, C. Borden, P. Ehrlich, C. Klein.

Basic Drives: Zdravstvetye, tovar-eeshch! Kak vui pozhivayete? This greeting seems Greek to most everyone at Newton High except the members of the Russian Club. These stalwart students who have accepted the challenge of mastering a very difficult language make up a very lively group, interested in learning more about this Slavic language and the culture of the people who speak it.

Manifestations: The Russians have good reason to be hefty if their diets include delicacies such as were prepared for the cookie sale and the holiday party this year. And with food comes song, in Russian, of course, which contributed greatly to most of the club's meetings.

Side Effects: a compulsion to approach people and say, "Vui govoretye po-rooski? The safest thing to answer is a hearty "Nyet!"

Drives: Schuler, die Mitglieder von "Der Deutsche Verein" wurden, entdeckten, dass Newton High School naher zu Deutschland war, als sie dachten. Die Tatigkeiten des Vereins brachten ihnen sowohl die Kultur als auch die Sprache der deutschsprechenden Lander nahe.

Manifestations: Dieses Jahr war die Energie des Vereins besonders schaffend. Vorzugliche Sprecher — bemerkenswert Dr. Philip Schmidt-Schlegel, Konsul der Bundesrepublik in Boston — werden zu der Schule eingeladen. Interessante Tonbänder wurden benutzt um die Sprachfähigkeit zu verbessern. Mit neuem Selbstvertrauen haben die Schuler ihre eigene deutsche Zeitschrift (Die Brücke) verfasst.

GERMAN CLUB

FIRST ROW: A. Kirshner, S. Blackstone, M. Finkel, M. Dayag, A. Zemgals, President; H. Fradkin, Vice-President; W. Grahm, Treasurer; M. Sweeney, M. Dever, K. Wrenn. SECOND ROW: K. Krukonis, S. Levenson, G. Williams, R. Coleman, D. Alksnitis, C. Platt, D. VonRichthofen, D. Campbell, E. Lourie, I. Firger, M. Fradkin, B. Hinteregger, Mr. Clark, Advisor.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

Basic Drives: International relations must be understood before they can be improved. International Club members studied significant problems at home, abroad, and in the United Nations — and became more aware of the world.

Manifestations: Speakers came from school and outside. Discussion groups were formed to analyze world problems, and several model United Nations were conducted — at Boston College, at Mount Vernon, and in Cambridge. At one meeting the guest-speaker was Professor Nikiforof from the University of Moscow; hearing him was an unusual privilege for a high school group.

FIRST ROW: N. Roche, K. Waters, E. Mittelman, L. Chasen, Recording Secretary; W. Feldman, Vice-President; S. Gross, President; J. Bagriansky, M. Michael, M. Isenberg, C. Shapiro, E. Gahm. SECOND ROW: G. Ryan, B. Ford, M. Yesley, J. Spencer, M. Zinn, J. Menelly, J. Berman, C. Masakwe, H. Taplin, B. Fuoco, J. Merrin, J. Spitz, A. Mastroianni, M. Fitzpatrick, D. DeGeorge. THIRD ROW: A. Kent, G. Garber, H. Tocman, C. Berezin, A. Klein, S. Pollack, D. Jacobs, M. Neuman, J. Rubin, S. Kaufman, P. Cookley, S. Helman, R. Silver.

DEBATING CLUB

FIRST ROW: J. McCann, D. VanArsdale, M. Davis, Secretary; M. Kaitz, J. Levinson, President; M. Coogan, Treasurer; A. Brilliant, N. Epstein. SECOND ROW: D. Cohen, C. Bridgett, D. Jacobson, R. Glovesky, R. Yukes, G. Houghton, S. Olasky, J. Rubin, J. Kuffler, D. Stone, S. Winston. THIRD ROW: A. Blazar, S. Jigger, J. Lery, B. Cain, M. Krakow, R. Betts, G. James, J. Lepie.

Basic Drives and Manifestations: Skilled and daring students joined the N.H.S. Debating Club, and thereby joined the oral combat raging in the Greater Boston Debate League. There was a place for both affirmatists and negativists in the Boston, New England, and WBZ broadcasted contests . . . a real outlet for students with a lot to say about Federal tax and education issues, or for students who just like to say a lot . . . well.

Side Effects: No matter what motives members had for joining, they all learned, in the heat of argument, the importance of organization.

FRENCH HONOR SOCIETY

Si vous parlez bien français you were in line for membership in the French National Honor Society. Qualifications for inductees were stiff, though. Students had to have an "A" average in French (one "B" term per year is allowed) and no more than one "C" in other subjects. In addition, the character and service of each prospective member were considered.

Few who did make it, however, will forget the night of the induction ceremony, when each student received his red, blue, and white ribbon from the French Consul in Boston. Highlighting the evening was a French recitation contest open to any student in any grade.

NATIONAL MERIT SEMI-FINALISTS

Seventeen NHS seniors earned themselves the honor of being named National Merit Scholarship finalists this year, and twenty other Newton High students received letters of commendation in the nation-wide competition.

Semi-finalists were selected on a basis of scores on a standardized test. Then the finalists were chosen, chiefly by Aptitude test scores and application information. This year all of the seventeen NHS semi-finalists reached the finalist category.

From the group of finalists throughout the country, about ten percent will actually receive a National Merit Scholarship. The NMS Corporation chooses its winners on a basis of "high school record, school recommendations, exceptional accomplishments or abilities, participation in school and community activities, character, leadership, and test scores."

FIRST ROW: M. Shore, M. Shapiro, C. Klein, B. Leeder, J. Siskind, E. Ulman. SECOND ROW: R. Stone, D. Blocker, S. Levine, S. Gross, M. Kaitz, J. Levenson, P. Shapiro. MISSING: P. Johnson, S. Deitz.

FIRST ROW: R. Singer, P. Johnson, Literary Editor; M. McDaniel, Treasurer; M. Kaitz, Vice President; Mr. Gradone, Advisor; T. Weiskel, President; J. Siskind, Secretary; R. Stone, Literary Editor; B. J. Hill, V. Lockwood. SECOND ROW: G. Rogell, J. Berkman, D. Swartz, M. Kolikof, F. Kavanagh, S. Dietz, E. Gleason, L. Klein, B. Campbell, P. Sherman, S.

Altman, E. Mittelman, N. Roche, S. Copenhagen, M. Lipsett. THIRD ROW: R. Matthews, J. Levinson, R. Winograd, L. Raffel, R. Angoff, B. MacFarlane, H. Fradkin, J. Sherman, S. Levine, R. Rosenbaum, R. Horovitz, D. Blocker, P. Shapiro. MISSING: M. Hecht, R. Joyce, P. Leary, T. Mitchell, R. Petkun, H. Schermerhorn, M. Shore, C. Weinstein.

Although the National Honor Society is chiefly an honorary society commending the qualities "leadership, scholarship, character, and service;" the Newton High chapter was definitely a functioning organization.

This year the Society, with Tim Weiskel as President and Mr. Gradone as advisor, did work in two fields. First, it lent its support to Mr. Livingston's tutorials, and second, it worked diligently again on its annual project, collecting for the Heart Fund.

The S.S. Happiness sailed onto the Newton High stage November 22nd and December 2nd, bearing on its decks thirty-six members of the senior class. Among the zany shipmates were the captains and their crew, elderly Yiddish friends, Brooklyn salesgirls, young socialities, Coast Guard men, and several scampering children.

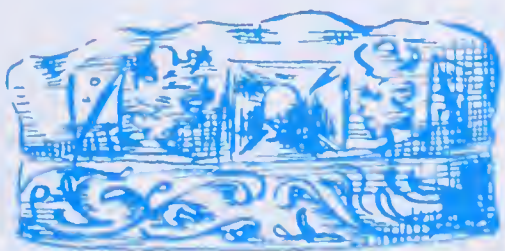

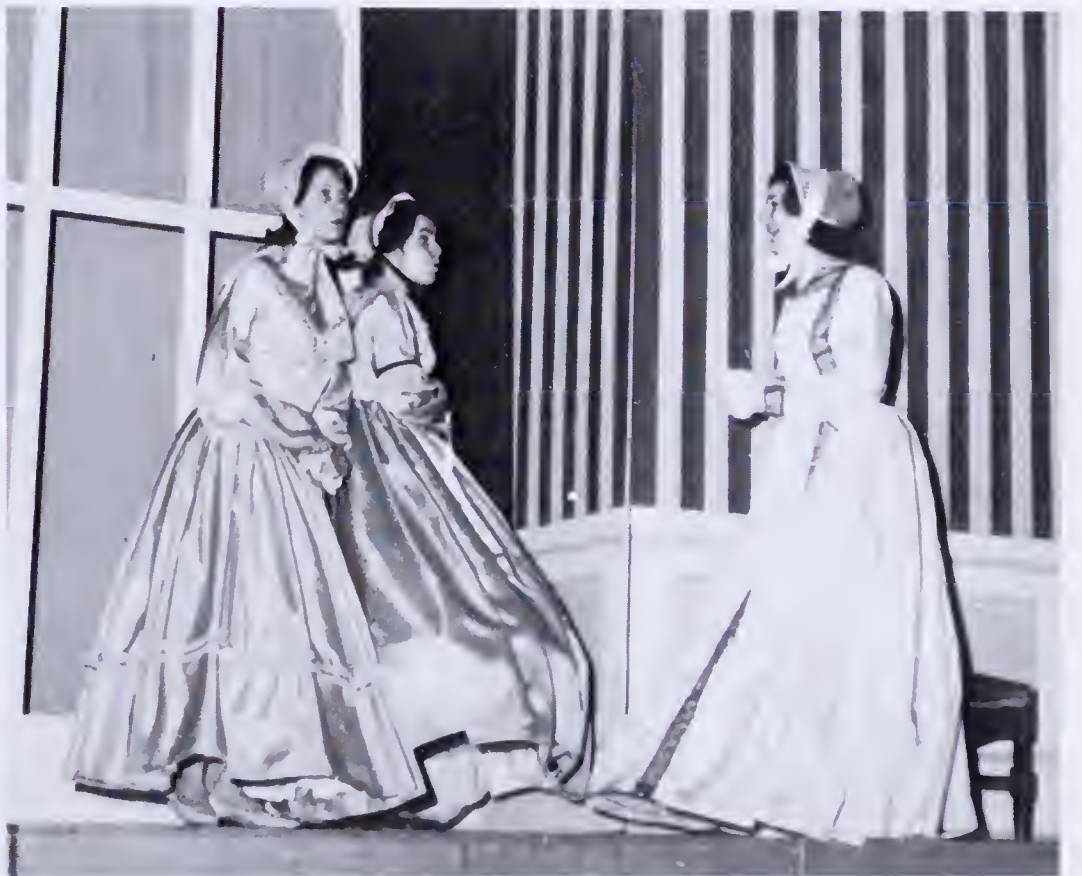

The show was safely steered on its course by Mr. Spink and three student directors. Tickets, Stage, Properties, Scenery, Make-up, Publicity, Ushers, and Costumes Committees, headed by general-chairman Dick Stone, carefully outfitted the ship and its passengers. Excursion was truly an all-class project. Many of those faithful seniors who could not participate in the cast or on committees were in the audience cheering its successful run.

The Drama Festival was packed, and with good reason. The curtain rose on Euripedes' Medea (a beautiful translation by Robinson Jeffers), and the Nurse's opening speech assured the audience that it would get its money's worth. Next, a carefully trimmed version of Moliere's Le Malade Imaginaire, the story of the hypochondriac Ardin and his ninconpoop doctors, provided comic relief. Finally, two scenes from Laurence Housman's Victoria Regina were presented, and these won the prize, especially because of the skilled acting of David Blocker (as Prince Albert) and Marilee Wyman (as Victoria). Acting awards went to David Blocker, Mary Fawcett, Amy Kraft, Heidi-Linda Margolis, Sigrid Nickelson, Harlan Schneider, Elyse Thierry, and Marilee Wyman. But the judges must have had a hard time choosing these individuals from the highly talented group, who gave us one of the most exciting evenings of the year.

FIRST ROW: I. Posner, S. Bronstein, J. Wolbarst, D. Green, D. Feeley, E. Serkin, G. Simmons, M. Goldman. SECOND ROW: J. Matz, L. Kulin, J. Arsenian, K. Mansur, B. Pellows, M. Hill, C. Bloom, P. Kates, A. Sherman, S. Gerson. THIRD ROW: E. Entin, D. Goldman, L. Sones, R. Sonnabend, J. Branzburg, S. Donath, I. Feldman, V. Levy, C. Stein, V. Sudhalter.

DRAMA CLUB

Basic Drives: "The play's the thing," so the Drama Club strove to encourage interest in dramatics and its related arts.

Manifestations: To describe some fine points of theatrical make-up, Mrs. Willard visited one Drama Club meeting. The highlight of another meeting was Miss Ryan's explanation of "how to try out for a part in a play (which admittedly involves the student's psychological effect on the judge). The club members planned various theatre trips and parties. One play they viewed was The Devil's Disciple at the Loeb Drama Center.

STAGE CREW

Basic Drives: The people on Stage Crew wanted to learn the ropes of the technical aspects important to any show.

Manifestations: Whenever the curtain went up, whenever the scenery changed, whenever the sound effects came through, the Stage Crew was responsible. The crew may have remained behind stage, but they lit the way for every Newton High production.

FIRST ROW: R. Diamond, M. Riccio, L. Alsmeyer, Secretary; P. Garrett, Treasurer; D. Rohsenow, S. Ress, H. Masters. SECOND ROW: Mr. Chase, Advisor; R. Spence, D. Mathaisel, R. Hamill, J. Benoit, R. Yoshinsky, M. Dayag, J. Wilker, E. Austin, E. Thierry, R. Morse, H. Gorin.

ART

MUSIC CLUB

In Music Club history, 1964 will be remembered for its productivity. Out of the massive membership and corresponding organization came much musical activity: student concerts, performances of original compositions, Newton High Night at Pops. In addition, the year had quite a professional flavor; several NHS compositions and players became part of the Boston Symphony Orchestra programs.

Note: Contrary to rumor, the Music Club has announced no admiration for the Beatles. The Club members refuse to comment on this vocal group.

FOLKSINGING CLUB

Basic Drives: "Hootenanny" is a relatively new craze for most of us. The Folksinging Club, however, has for several years given students the chance to learn and sing folksongs other than those that are currently popular.

Manifestations: At bi-weekly hoots, members brought their own favorite songs and sang them with guitar accompaniment. Perhaps the highlight of the year was the presentation of Kitty Rippey, a Gospel-singer with the same delight in singing of the work and its people.

GIRLS' CHORUS

Any girl who loves to sing was welcomed into Girls' Chorus. And although discovery of her sweet voice might lead to promotion to A Capella choir, she had all the activity she could want within the Chorus. This group performed at various X-Block assemblies and at the Christmas Pops Night concert. When not practicing for a performance it sang for pure enjoyment—and it was often hard to separate the two motives.

FIRST ROW: B. Kelley, N. Acheson, M. Leahy, E. Coombs, A. McDonald, J. Maloof, P. Asaff, B. Ford, E. Gill, M. Brown. SECOND ROW: D. Pabber, L. Shafran, A. Price, S. Wiener, J. Spencer, F. Foster, J. Schneider, E. Silva, B. LeBrun, V. Grady, N. Colantuono, C. Lawson, J. Solomon, G. Ryan, K. Okuma, W. Young, S. Gradone, C. Stone. THIRD ROW: J. Downing, M. Broderick, D. Crew, J. Kail, A. Meterparel, J. Wilson, L. Cavanaugh, L. Hunt, C. Pasquarosa, P. Hern, L. Cummins, J. Libbey, A. Sweetser, L. Daniels, D. Thurston, R. Mayhew, C. Chu, L. Malloy. FOURTH ROW: P. Blum, A. Carp, K. Manson, V. Tom, C. Hayden, C. Lawson, B. Chase, M. Schutter, G. Templer, B. Tarlow, S. Ostrosky, J. Oppen, E. Boiteau, C. Munafo, S. Caplis, M. Perry.

MIXED CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus was not primarily a performing group, but rather a training ground for other groups in the Music Department. Its members learned to sing four-part music. In addition, they studied the background of difficult kinds of music. When the year was through they were not only better trained for a choir such as A Capella, but also better equipped to enjoy the musical world outside of Newton High School.

FIRST ROW: S. Freeto, G. Larkin, E. Masterson, M. Cohne, R. Spritz, P. Parnell, B. Bearak. SECOND ROW: L. Theise, C. McLean, F. Lyons, F. Harris, M. Jacobs, R. Shapiro, Non-member.

ORCHESTRA

Bravo! Bravo! Bravissimo!

Members of the Orchestra may have ranged widely in the development of the talent they all possessed, but they were all willing to become temperamental and serious musicians for four full periods each week. The Orchestra played at X-Block concerts, Music Club assemblies, the Senior Play, a professional presentation of Aida, and more. Several of the musicians were chosen to work with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

In spite of the unavoidable rawness of a high school orchestra, this year's group accomplished a surprising amount. Even should some performances be forgotten, their spirit and their handling of such difficult pieces as Bach's 2nd Brandenburg Concerto will be praised for a long time.

BAND

FIRST ROW: B. Canner, K. Waters, P. Vaccaro, D. Gorenstein, S. Hayden, V. Lieberman, E. Shriber, M. Samick, J. Thurber, D. Litwack, J. Powell. SECOND ROW: S. Kazules, S. Goodman, J. Beatrice, M. Alpert, E. Shreider, G. Levinson, S. Shuman, R. Sigel, S. Stone, J. McGourty, B. Haywood, D. Freed.

Seniors remember that three years ago, the Newton High Band was sick. Its ranks were growing thinner and thinner, and the remaining members were a jaundiced orange color. It tended to repeat the same tunes over and over again. People laughed at it, and it felt decidedly inferior.

To the rescue last year came Mr. Peter Cobb, a Newton High graduate who had known the band in better days. New members were recruited, and treated with snappy black blazers and striped ties. This year's band was so enthusiastic that it held an all-day workshop before school began in September; it was not only proud to show itself at home on the Newton High gridiron, but it led the first Tigerama motorcade, and has toured Newton elementary and junior high schools to inspire future tooters. The Marching Band was at least sixty members strong for each football game, and had enough energy left after them for lively band parties. Growing interest in such social events led to the formation this year of the Band Advisory Board where two representatives from each class discuss problems and projects with Mr. Cobb in a sort of group therapy. A sale of band candy bars in October projected a sweet image throughout the school and paid for new music, uniforms, and instruments. The band now looks, feels, and sounds decidedly superior.

FIRST ROW: S. Olasky, R. Bloomenthal, M. Riccio, D. Petkun, J. Beatrice, T. Farrell, J. Hacker, D. Ross. SECOND ROW: M. Krakow, R. White, M. Gordon, S. Kaufman, M. Davis, D. Riley, R. Lehrberg.

Mae mee ma moe moo, ti do is the slogan of A Capella Choir. The melodies of Newton High School's largest group of selected singers ranged from Catholic hymns sung in Latin to Gilbert and Sullivan operettas to Bach's love songs.

The public was treated to examples of A Capella's talents on several occasions. The choir performed for sophomores (to introduce them to music opportunities at NHS), for the P.T.A., at Christmastime, and at Graduation.

Miss Seaver taught A Capella members not only to love music, but also to read it, sing it on key and in time, and, believe it or not, how to breathe correctly. It's a mighty big order for a huge group — but the musical results were first-rate in comparison with any similar high school choir.

MADRIGALS

Basic Drives: The Madrigals, like any other choral group, sang because they loved to. At the same time they brought many people the beauty of their selected voices in harmony.

Manifestations: Of course the Madrigals were much in demand at our own school. They performed on Music Night, at the Original Compositions presentation, and at the Junior Class Music Assembly. Yet they found time to sing for elementary schools, clubs, and churches, spreading their fine reputation throughout Newton.

FIRST ROW: C. Bilezikian, C. Bloom, M. Gulden, F. Osborne, G. Bachrach, A. Scott. SECOND ROW: M. Wyman, L. Piken, M. Fishlyn, V. Grant. THIRD ROW: R. Sheely, N. Ciccone, T. Brown, T. Weiskel, D. Schofield, J. Elson, D. Blocker, S. Thompson.

ORCHESIS

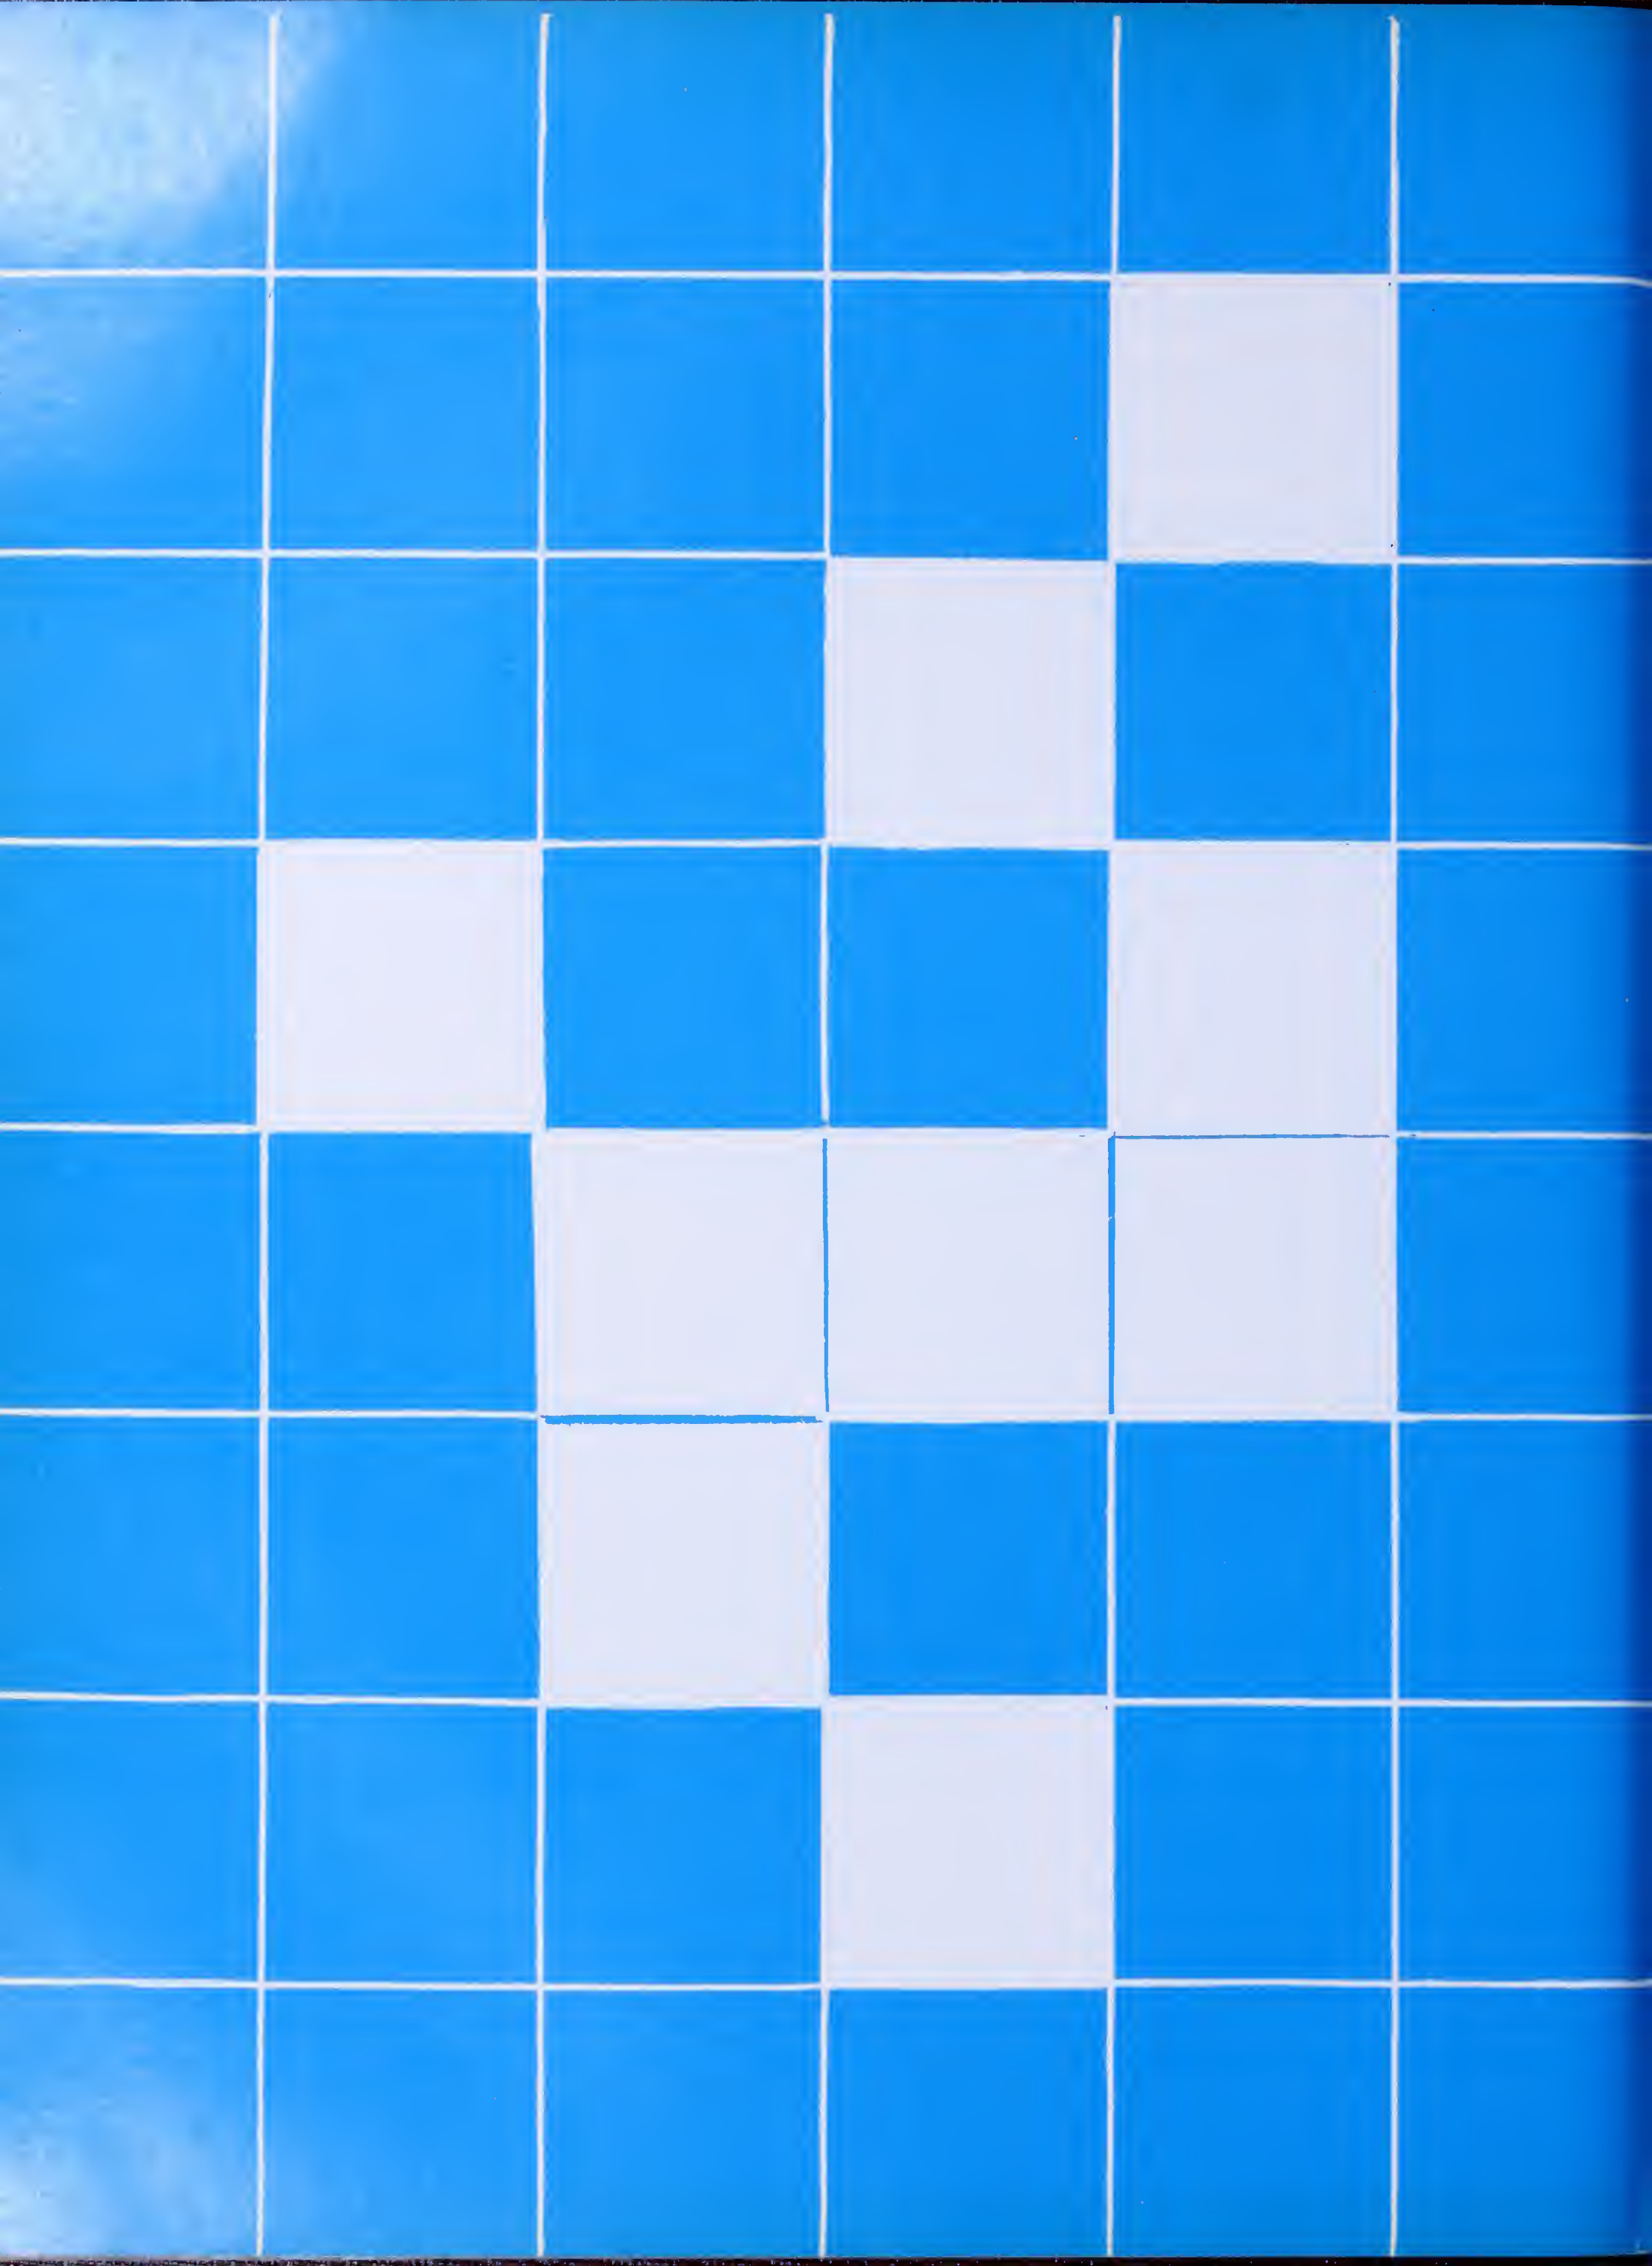

FIRST ROW: C. Haywood, A. Solomon, D. Satterfield, M. Wilbar, B. Boudreau, A. Crosby, L. Cate. SECOND ROW: B. Ford, B. Tarlow, B. Fuoco, Mrs. Amado, Advisor; A. Scott, C. Crosby, L. Sones. MISSING: D. Golub.

Basic Drives: For the energetic, orchesis provided a perfect outlet for creative, imaginative, or primitive urges.

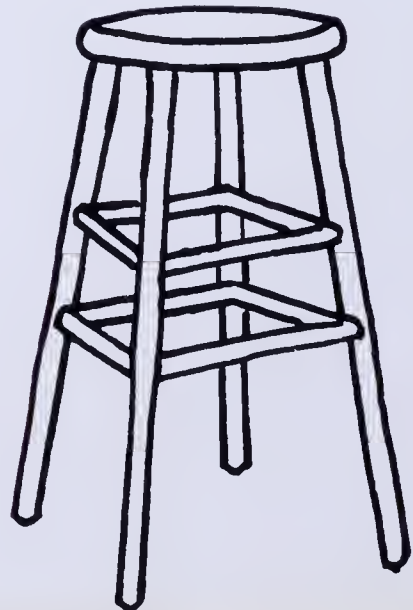

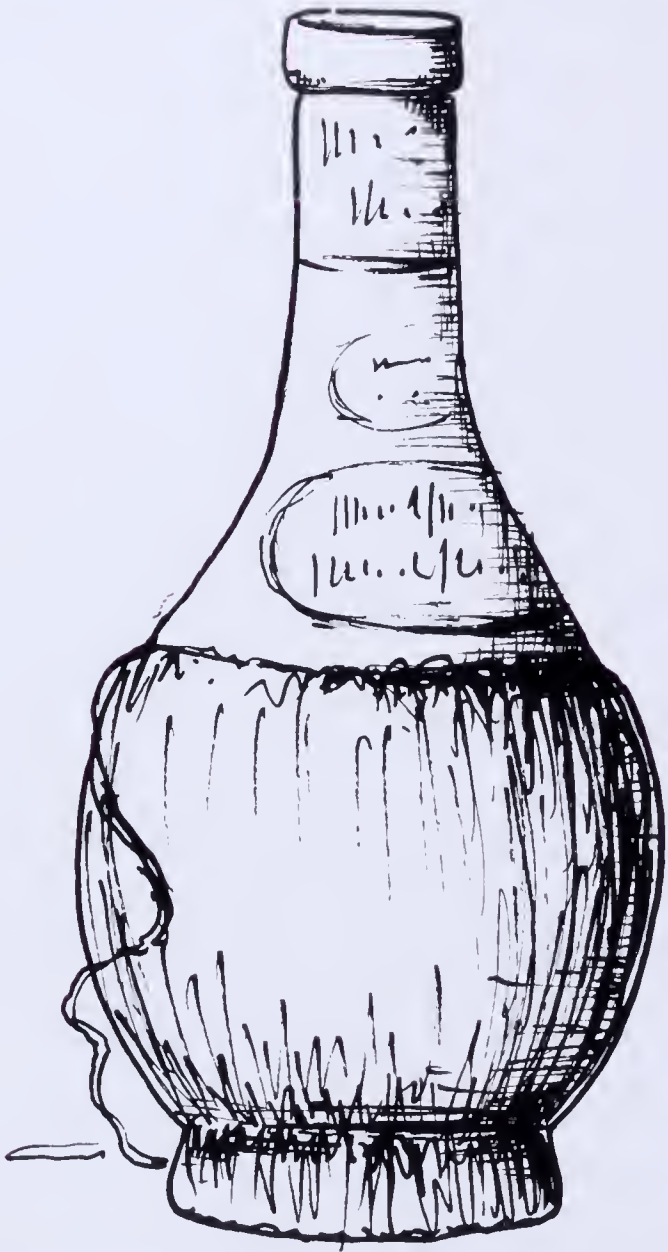

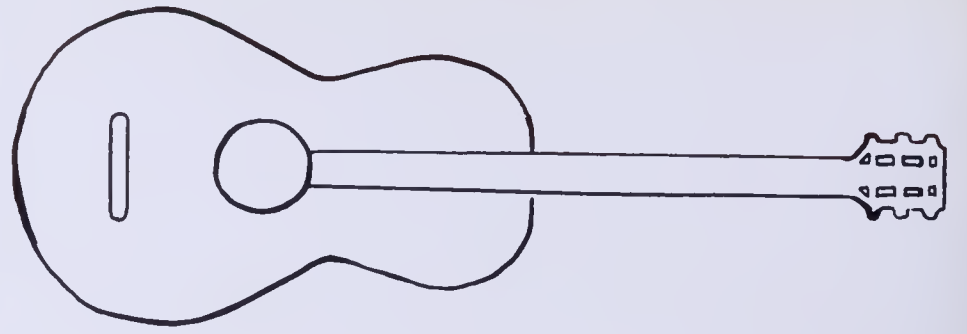

Manifestations: Even recovering spells were profitable; when the girls weren't dancing they were watching a master lesson by Pearl Primus, the Bennington Dance Group, or Albert Resso.

Side Effects: At their own X-Block assembly, members had the opportunity of showing their inspiration, discipline, new skills, and dirty leotards.

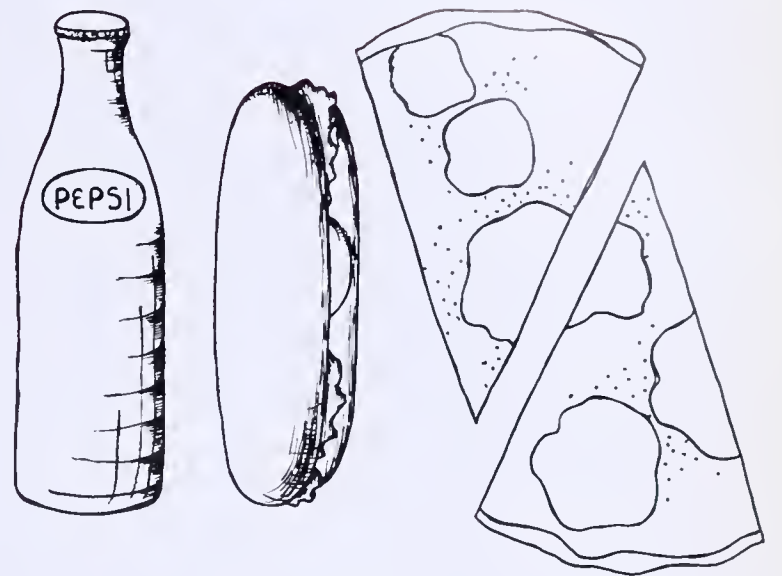

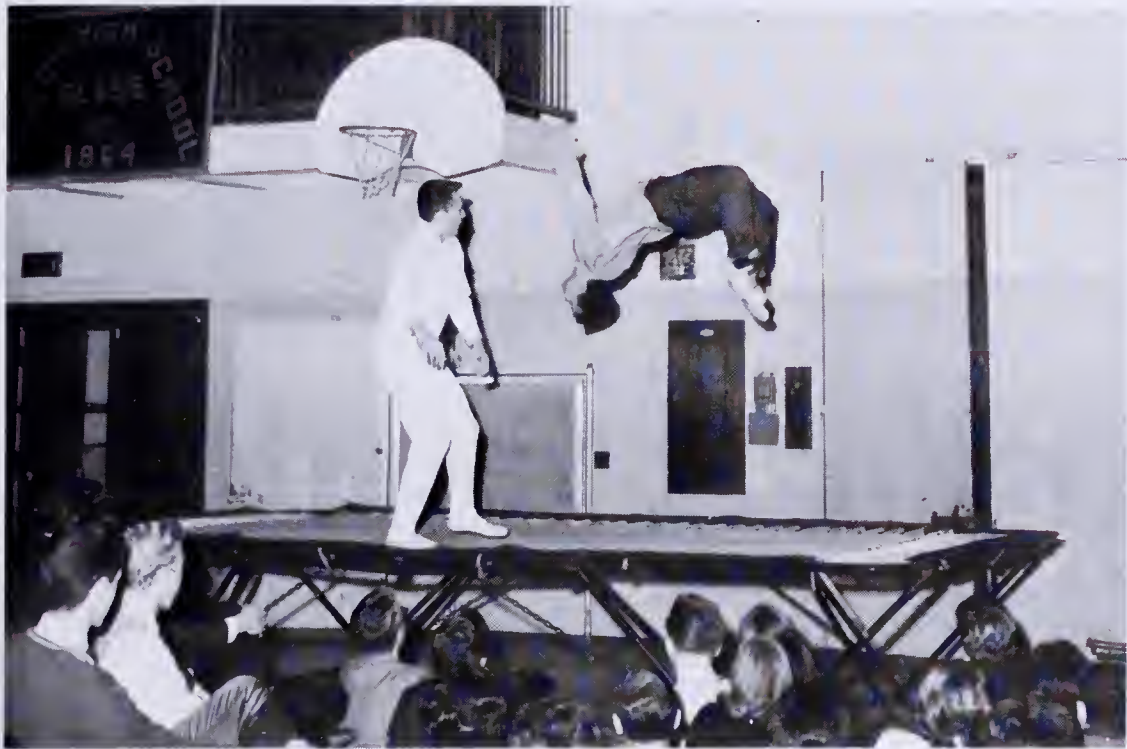

SOCIAL

SENIOR SUPPER

"Magnifico!" describes best this year's Senior Supper. Of course, its success was due in large part to the enthusiasm of the class. But the menu — pizzas, subs, cokes, and ice cream—and the colorful Italian scenery added much to the gaiety.

The entertainment, both our own and professional, was superb. A giant yellow canary kept interrupting a tiddlywinks tournament while his frantic owner tried desperately to purchase some "bird theed." And the president of the Senior Class, when asked by a sidewalk vendor to help him out, couldn't even sell pencils correctly.

The folksinging group which followed was so good that we decided to join in and have our own hootenany. Square dancing, then social dancing completed an evening so enjoyable that nobody felt like saying Arreverdercci.

TIGERAMA

FIRST ROW: Mrs. Geiger, Advisor; C. Muther, G. Lockwood, Chairman; M. Farrell, M. Ham, G. Genevese. SECOND ROW: S. Janes, Finance Chairman; E. Feldman, Building Chairman; T. Weiskel, B. O'Brien, P. Cotton, S. Calvert, B. Huston.

Ignoring the fears of superstitious students, Tigerama kicked off the school year in grand style on Friday, September 13th. Both Newton High and South High participated in the annual motorcade that culminated at our school. The December Tigerama was split to offer more students the opportunity to attend. Held on different nights, each Tigerama presented a folksinging group.

The Tigerama Committee soon realized that teenagers seem to prefer large, noisy crowds to more intimate groups. They held the February and May events together, the former at South and the latter at Newton High. Thanks to the able leadership of Ginny Lockwood and staff, Tigerama enjoyed a pleasant and profitable year.

NEWTONITE

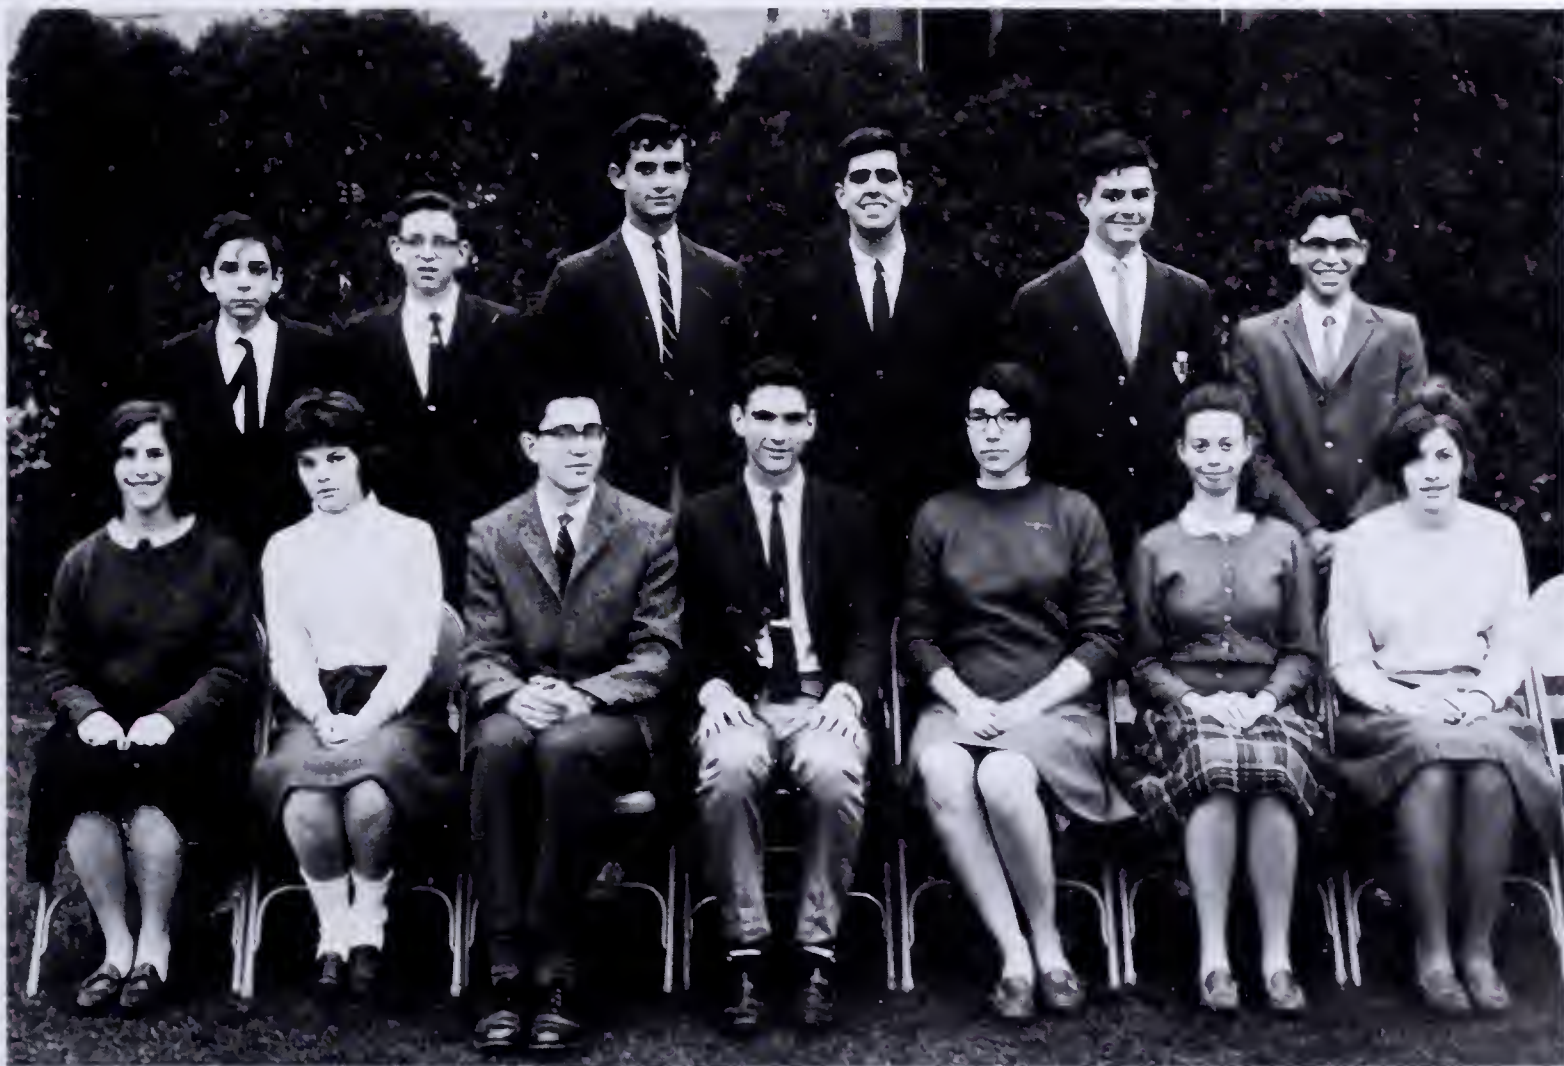

Basic Drives: Many people feel that they can write. Of these, some actually do. When the Newtonite found these people, they created a staff to supervise the smooth running of our school paper.

Manifestations: This year the Newtonite published ten issues and a special report on the Newton-Brookline Thanksgiving football game. Its reporters discussed school events and local issues, politics and national issues; and Ferlin Grubb discussed sports.

Side Effects: Missed meals and mass confusion.

NEWTONITE EDITORIAL STAFF

FIRST ROW: G. Lockwood, R. Seltzer, H. Gorin, R. Steibel, L. Chasen, Editor-in-Chief; E. Mittelman, M. Berman. SECOND ROW: K. Schneider, P. Shapiro, P. O'Brien, J. Sherman, R. Betts, W. Horner.

Basic Drives: The ambitious goal of the Ad Staff was to maintain the Newtonite's current status as a self-sufficient publication, and to insure by its funds that Newton High could publish a superior school newspaper.

Manifestations: The staff sold enough advertisement space to local firms and establishments to meet the costs of printing the Newtonite.

Side Effects: Over achievement! Often the Ad Staff performed its job so well that the editorial staff found its copy squeezed out of the issue by an overflow of ads.

CIRCULATION

Basic Drives: This staff convinced people that they wanted the Newtonite. Then they sold it to them.

Manifestations: The distribution of ten issues of the Newtonite and a 30% increase in sales were due to the staff members' energy. They cajoled the faculty to subscribe and persuaded the printer to deliver on time. When the papers finally arrived, they circulated!

Side Effects: Fatigue . . . but money, too.

Burnes, S. Andelman, L. Ginsberg, P. Gordon, G. Ryan, C. Tocman.

Basic Drives: Fifty ambitious sophomores and juniors unraveled the mysteries of Newton High School for new students . . . and it took ambition!

Manifestations: In their articles, all of which they had approved by qualified sources, staff members tried to answer all questions that entering students would ask, and a lot which they doubtlessly would not ask.

Side Effects: See the nervous sophomore. That expression on his face is panic. What is that thing in his trembling hand? It is called an Orange Book! Pretty Orange Book. Useful Orange Book. Why is he nervous? It is called an Orange Book. Pretty Orange Book . . .

REFLECTIONS

Basic Drives: Reflections' noble aim was to publish a provocative magazine glorifying the products of students' creative impulses. The staff collected manuscripts, read manuscripts, rated manuscripts, discussed manuscripts — and sometimes even created manuscripts.

Manifestations: Staff members pestered students, pestered English teachers, and pestered fellow staff members — but it worked!

Side Effects: Progress not without panic.

FIRST ROW: M. Michael, N. Zancheck, B. Fuoco, L. Harrer, Assistant Editor; Mr. Wolf, Advisor; J. Davis, Art Editor; D. Kupferman, S. Ress, I. Dore. SECOND ROW: E. Berger, R. Seltzer, C. LIBRARY CLUB

Basic Drives and Manifestations: Remember the sunny smile that greeted you from the library desk the day after your reserved book was due? Chances are it belonged to a member of the Library Club. Besides collecting money from forgetful students, these self-sacrificing workers devote valuable study hall periods and free time to perform the clerical and desk tasks that most of us take for granted.

Side Effects: Of course there are rewards for this work. When the year's fines were added up, the Club could have transferred its picnic to the Ritz Carlton.

FIRST ROW: B. Piantedosi, K. Manson, S. Rayburg, S. Hall, S. Shapiro, J. Salamone, R. Ford, A. Sobol, M. Steinman, T. Farrell. SECOND ROW: S. Battista, M. Dayag, S. Freeto, S. Wooten, M. Campbell, G. Ryan, C. Green, J. Shriber, P. Burke, L. Dibeneditto, S. Spill, J. Mahony, P. Davis, F. Deats, Mr. Beatty. THIRD ROW: L. Monahan, B. Mogen, L. Brody, B. McCann, V. Barry, J. Hennelly, J. Haverty, C. Mehlsak, N. Plotkin, J. McNamara.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

Basic Drives: Without good editors our school publications would be in serious trouble. Therefore, the whole school relied on the Publications Board, whose responsibility was to choose the editors for the Orange Book and Newtonian. "Members of the Board" were also careful to evaluate the needs and progress of each publication.

Side Effects: A real democracy! A student's vote counted as heavily as a teacher's, and just this year was the principal given voting rights.

TUSITALA

FIRST ROW: S. Gross, D. Green, D. Kupferman. SECOND ROW: J. Hirsh, G. Ross, C. Crosby, M. Zinn, L. Stewart.

Basic Drives: The Tusitala member found outlet for his creative instincts and comrades in the Fight for Recognition.

Manifestations: Members were found drooping over dictionaries in search of the Right Word. They were found criticizing each other's work in discussion groups. And sometimes, if you crept up behind them, they were found indulging in a little mutual admiration.

Side Effects: Some Tusitala members took personal interest in the material selected for Reflections. Ah, the Battle for Recognition!

SENIORS

THE END OF THE BEGINNING

"Begin at the beginning," said the psychiatrist to his new patient, a senior at Newton High School. "That's the only way we'll be able to find out why you're so unhappy now."

But the beginning seemed so blurred. He had no clear memory of his first days at Newton High because nothing had been clear then. The thousands of faces in the corridors had seemed all alike, because they were all different from those he had seen before. His first football games and school plays and other gala affairs had seemed as professional and impersonal as television programs, because he had had no way of knowing where the fumbles were, or of recognizing people beneath the uniforms and costumes and behind the microphones.

His first real orientation came not from a mass lecture but from a small class with a teacher who was lively, intelligent, and at the same time awe-inspiring. In that class, he reacted to other people to become a personality with a unique contribution. That teacher had been the adviser to a club; he joined it and began to find his homework time limited as one thing led to another and his school personality ventured further and further from the classroom where it was nursed. And his new experiences were not all organized and publicly accountable; there came a summer, a book, or a girl, that had nothing to do with anything, though it was everything.

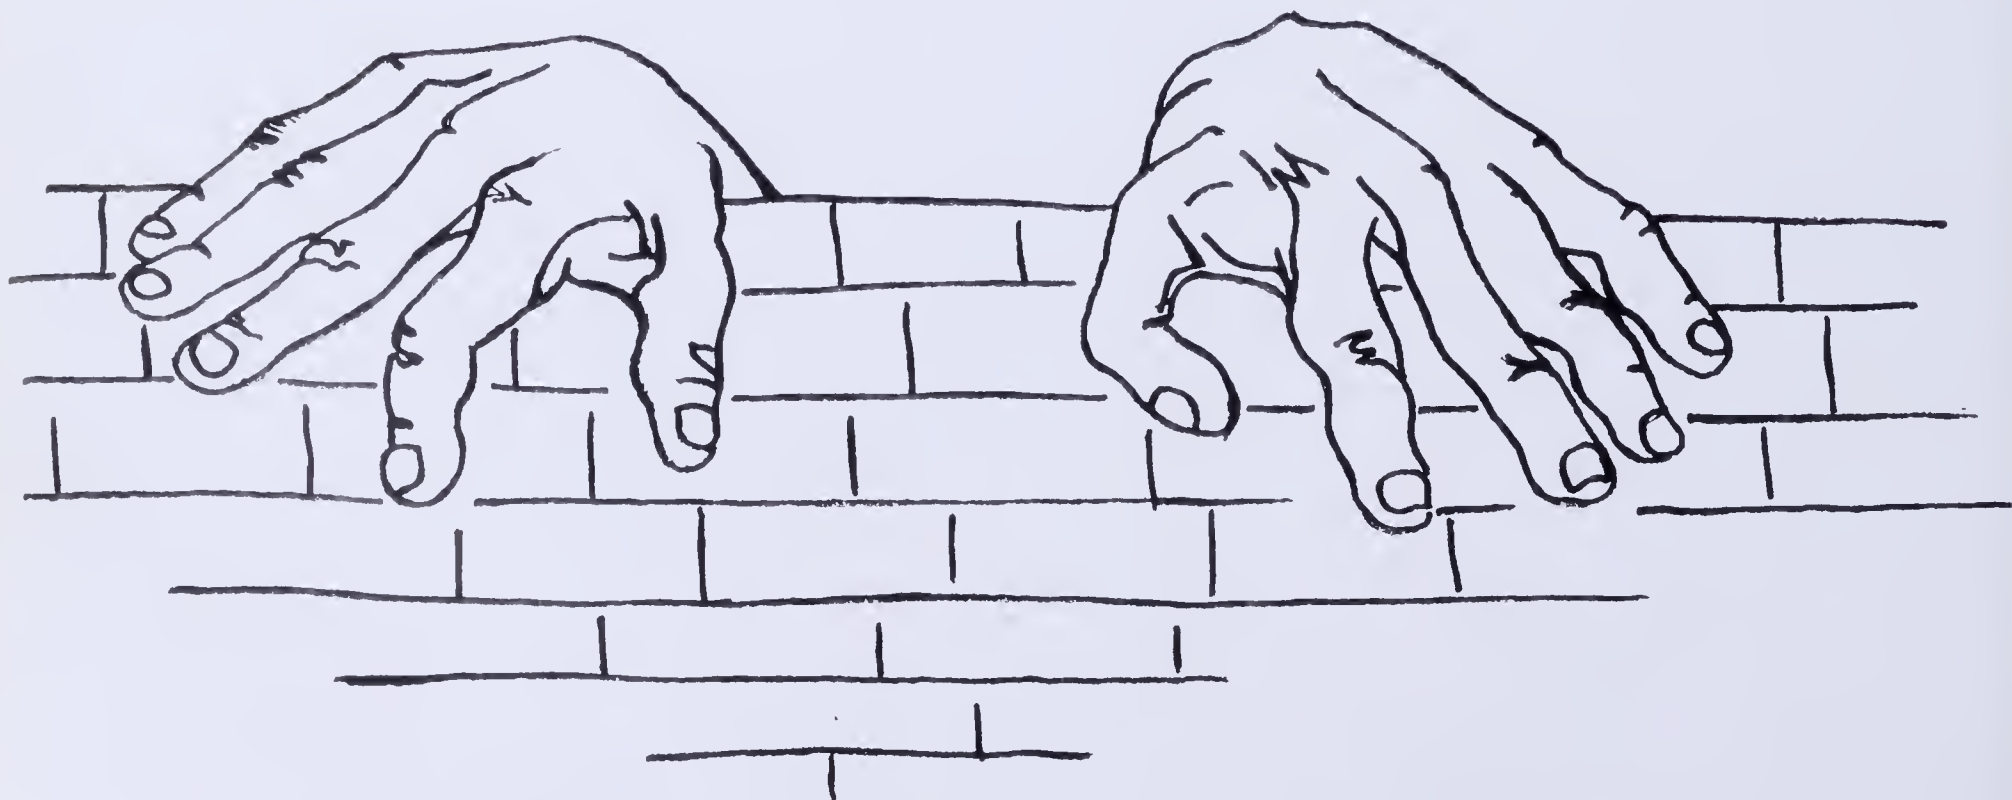

The faces in the corridor became distinguished into groups, and then into individuals. When someone in the Drama Festival ad-libbed a line that he had heard rehearsed a hundred times, he winced as he manipulated the lights behindstage. By senior year the mention of his name would bring forth a wisecrack from some, a compliment from others, and perhaps, from one, a sigh.

The senior sighed impatiently and slumped down onto the couch. "Nothing but success, it seems to me," commented the psychiatrist.

Well, he had been quite happy, in an anxious way, about the way things had been going since the beginning, but lately he had been thinking about the end. Wasn't all that worry for nothing, since it would all be over in June?

"But don't you know that the world is just Newton High magnified a thousand times?" The psychiatrist's own interests extended far beyond the academics of his profession. "And you will recognize the same people with a thousand different faces."

But the faces he knew were in the corridors of Newton High School and could the people anywhere else be quite the same?

"... the herd psychology"

—William Temple

LEARN TO DRIVE WELL . . .
BECOME A
Roads Scholar

A Roads Scholar is a driver expertly trained to handle a car in any situation. He or she drives safely and confidently at all times. Roads scholars are Garber-trained and consequently they know the "Teen-Commandments" of good, safe driving and have practiced them until they have become second nature. You too can be a Garber's Roads Scholar. Call now and become one of the best drivers on the highway. 5-10 lesson courses for drivers of all ages. Driver Education courses begin frequently. Limited participation — Take classroom work at school — On the road lessons with us.

WITHOUT BREAKING STRIDE,

why not graduate from high school to the Telephone Company? You'll love the friendly young people who'll work with you, and the many social activities that make your work so pleasant and rewarding.

OPPORTUNITY IS EXCELLENT

and your ability will be recognized. Your starting salary should climb with regular increases. And, of course, Company benefits, security, and regular advancement are well-known reasons why working for the Telephone Company is so attractive to graduates.

TELEPHONE JOBS ARE IMPORTANT, vital to the effective communications of the community, the nation, and the world. When you take your place as a respected member of the telephone community, we'll train you, on full salary, even without previous job experience.

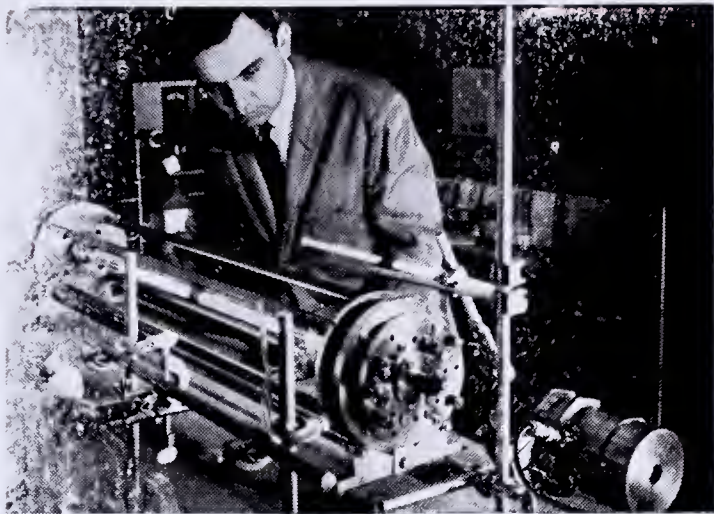

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.

Tomorrow's electronics is Raytheon's business today!

Exciting new developments in electronics are everyday business at Raytheon. Examples: Radarange microwave ovens that cook a complete meal in two to five minutes; lasers . . . key to tomorrow's space communications; weather radar to warn of approaching storms. To young men and women planning a career, electronics offers many rewarding opportunities. Today, more than 4000 companies make up the electronics industry. Of these, Raytheon is one of the world's largest manufacturers specializing in electronic equipment.

DREAMS

Sophomore dreams of knowing all
Things and people, growing tall,
Strong enough to play football,
Or just to jump the stadium wall,
Or of a waist as willow-small,
As someone else's who's a doll,
A special social telephone call,
Smoking Newport or Pall Mall,
Which way lies the lecture hall,
Darin, Bobby; Anka, Paul,
How many parts there are in Gaul,
Or oxygens in alcohol,
Is he "fou" or is he "fol",
So confused he wants to bawl.

Senior dreams of peaches and creams,
Schedule bursting to the seams,
But ever onward senior steams,
Unmindful of the crowded streams,
He works alone and not in teams,
Does his duty as he deems,
But sometimes staggers, steps, and screams,
And then he thinks of mountain streams,
Shepherd shacks with oaken beams,
And far ahead, the future gleams.

Junior dreams he's having fun,
Screeching like an Indian,
Eating like a hungry Hun,
Reading "What Makes Sammy Run",
Who cares if he weighs a ton?
Owning his place in the sun,
He dresses unlike anyone,
And has to work like everyone.
